INTRODUCTION

When I first started my food blog nearly 10 years ago, I had no intention of moving in a primarily plant-based direction. Though I had vegan friends, I thought surely they were starving, protein deficient, and no longer enjoying the delicious foods I was passionate about. Years later, I began to do my own research, reading the science from plant-based doctors such as Dr. Michael Greger, and following strong, thriving, plant-based athletes. I learned that it's possible to eat a satisfying plant-based diet while maintaining balanced nutrition. Not only that, but I learned that vegan dishes could still contain all the umami, creaminess, textures, and flavor that omnivores enjoy. As a lifelong animal lover, it's a diet with which I'm a lot more comfortable! I'm thrilled now to be helping others fall in love with nourishing, whole plant foods that are a bit gentler on most bodies, animals, and the earth.

The addition of the Instant Pot to my kitchen has been a game changer as a busy mom and plant-based home chef. Rice, whole grains, and legumes that traditionally take hours to soak and cook are now a breeze. I love that I no longer use cans of beans or plastic-wrapped, pre-cooked rice. The Instant Pot has made plant-based cooking healthier, easier, quicker, cheaper, and more eco-friendly.

This book will help you whip up delicious and easy one-pot meals—such as curry, chili, minestrone, and risotto—so you can spend more time with your family. You’ll also find special occasion treats like chocolate cake topped with ganache and berries. Enjoy!

PLANT-BASED FAST AND EASY

Your Instant Pot electric countertop appliance is ideal for plant-based cooking. It pressure cooks, slow cooks, steams, sautés, and makes yogurt—all in one pot! The Instant Pot makes it quick and easy to prepare whole, nutritious foods.

WHOLE FOODS FOR BUSY PEOPLE

The Instant Pot helps busy people enjoy the nourishing food they want without spending hours in the kitchen. As a busy mom, I love that I can “set and forget” our dinner to cook in the Instant Pot. I can help my kids with their homework without fussing over a pot on the stove or in the oven. Perfectly creamy risotto without stirring? No problem!

QUICK AND EFFICIENT

Cooking under pressure enables you to prepare whole foods in half the time. With the Instant Pot, you can finally make perfectly tender beans without any soaking. Cooking brown rice and black beans all at once is easy using the pot-in-pot method (cooking both foods simultaneously by placing an additional pot inside the Instant Pot). Firmer vegetables, such as beets, traditionally take 40 minutes or more to roast but are sweet and tender after just 20 minutes under pressure.

ONE-POT MEALS

The Instant Pot takes up very little space on your counter, and cleanup is a breeze because you're only using one pot. These self-contained meals are ideal for people who care about eating well but need doing so to be easy. With its many functions, you can sauté and pressure cook all in the same pot, developing the best possible flavor. The Warm function will keep your meal ready until you are!

SAFE AND USER-FRIENDLY

My first Instant Pot sat in its box, unopened, for months. I was intimidated and concerned about safety. After preparing my first dish, though, I was hooked. The Instant Pot is actually incredibly simple to use, and it's safe. It's equipped with safety mechanisms that the old-fashioned pressure cookers about which we hear horror stories simply didn't have. When used correctly, there is very little risk.

You'll have great success following the step-by-step instructions for each of the recipes in the book.

Choosing Your Model

There are many models of Instant Pot with varying sizes and features. The language on the panels changes, but they all essentially work the same. They come in 3-, 6-, and 8-quart sizes. The recipes in this book were developed in a 6-quart pot, which is a good size for an average family. Explore the functions on the different pots before making your purchase.

Depending on which model you own, you may notice subtle differences in the organization of the controls, as well as the names of some of the programs. Some older models may have a Manual program button, which is the equivalent of the Pressure Cook button on most newer models. Some older models may also have a Start button, while the programs on newer models may start automatically, beginning 10 seconds after program selection.

GET TO KNOW YOUR INSTANT POT

Before jumping into cooking with the Instant Pot, it's important to understand how this amazing appliance works. Familiarize yourself with these basic concepts to make your pressure cooking safe and successful.

COOKING UNDER PRESSURE

When you cook under pressure, your pot becomes airtight and pressurizes inside, increasing temperature and forcing steam into your food to cook it much quicker than with traditional methods. When using any pressure function, four factors affect outcome.

(1) SEALING: Without proper sealing to prevent air from escaping the pot, your pot will not come to pressure. Proper sealing is critical to achieving the expected results in the Instant Pot. Once your pot is sealed with the lid firmly in place, it will slowly begin to build pressure inside.

The lid will only lock into place if the silicone sealing ring is properly placed inside the lid. If the lid isn't properly in place, an error message will display on the LCD display. If you remove the lid to add an ingredient and then attempt to close and lock the lid back in place when there's still hot food in the inner pot, the pressure may still be too high and the pot may not seal. If this occurs, simply wait a few minutes for the contents to cool down a bit, and then replace the lid. Once the lid is properly sealed, the Instant Pot will indicate so with a brief rising chime. If the sealing is successful, the pot will initiate the selected program and no longer show an error code.

(2) LIQUID AND VOLUME: In order for the pot to pressurize, you need to have liquid—generally about 2 cups—in the inner pot. Recipes will call for the amount of liquid (usually water or broth) needed for a 6-quart pot.

For consistent results, always keep food and liquid contents at or below the markings on the inner pot. For pressure cooking, you should never fill the inner pot past the PC Max— $\frac{2}{3}$  indicator imprinted on the inside of the inner pot. For many foods, it's best to keep the volume at or below the  $\frac{1}{2}$  mark, particularly for foods that tend to expand in volume, such as beans or pasta.

As a general rule, the more volume you have in the pot, the longer it will take to reach full pressurization and the longer it will take for the pressure to release naturally once the cooking time is complete.

(3) TEMPERATURE: The temperature of foods that you place in the Instant Pot can have a direct impact on the results. Placing cold or frozen foods in the Instant Pot will cause it to take much longer to achieve full pressurization and temperature. You should always consider this when planning your cooking times, and assume that the colder the foods are that you place in the pot, the longer the build times will be. Room temperature foods can also have some impact on build and cooking times.

(4) ALTITUDE: Because you are cooking with pressure, atmospheric pressure can affect total cooking times. For locations below an elevation of 2,000 feet (610m) above sea level, no additional adjustments are necessary; however, for locations at or above 2,000 feet (610m), you should increase the cooking times by 5 percent for every 1,000 feet (300m) at or above the 2,000-foot (610-m) level. Some Instant Pots, such as the Ultra, have an altitude adjustment function built in.

PRESSURE RELEASE

Once the pressure cooking time is complete, you must release the pressure inside the pot before opening the lid. There are two ways to do this. For perfectly cooked food, always use the method called for in the recipe.

(1) NATURAL RELEASE: Natural pressure release begins automatically when a pressure cooking program is completed—or when the Cancel button is pressed—as the pot slowly releases steam. This method can take significantly longer than quick pressure release—typically anywhere between 5 to 30 minutes, depending on what is being cooked, the pressure at which it is being cooked, and the volume of food in the pot. When cooking foamy foods or recipes with a large volume, it is a good idea to naturally release the pressure for at least a few minutes to prevent sputtering out of the steam release valve. The gradual natural pressure release is also helpful when cooking dry beans because it helps keep beans intact.

Your food is still cooking while pressure is being naturally released. This cooking time is built into many recipes to achieve the best-cooked results, so don't skip it.

(2) QUICK RELEASE: A quick pressure release is achieved by manually pressing down the Quick Release button until it clicks and locks into the venting position, allowing pressure to quickly escape. To stop the quick release, slightly turn the button counterclockwise until it pops up to the sealing position. Quick pressure release is useful for vegetables, pasta, and other foods that can quickly become overcooked. Note that the quick release method should be done with caution, as the pot releases the pressure rapidly and can cause burns; never place your hand or face directly over the vent on the steam release handle. (As an added precaution, you can use a wooden spoon to flip the handle to the venting position.)

Maintenance

The Instant Pot makes cleanup easy because many parts are dishwasher safe. The lid is top-rack dishwasher safe, and the stainless steel inner pot and the sealing ring are also dishwasher safe. The anti-block shield and sealing ring should be removed and washed in hot, soapy water after each use. Never place the base of the Instant Pot in the dishwasher or get the heating element wet. To clean the exterior or lip of the pot, use a damp cloth.

Replacement parts are available and should be purchased whenever you notice cracks or deformations. The sealing ring may need to be replaced every 18 to 24 months because it absorbs cooking odors.

OUTER LID

STEAM RELEASE VALVE: If your lid is in the Sealing position, this valve allows a small amount of steam to release while pressure is building. If your lid is in the Venting position, it continuously releases steam.

QUICK RELEASE BUTTON: Use this button to control whether the pot is sealed or venting. When in the sealing position, the pot is able to build and maintain pressure. To manually release pressure, press the button down until it clicks into the venting position. Some models have a button that automatically pops up to the sealing position when the lid locks. Others have a steam release switch, which is toggled back and forth.

FLOAT VALVE: The float valve indicates whether the cooking chamber is pressurized. If the valve is raised up, the pot contains pressure—you must release the pressure before you can open the lid. If the float valve is sunken down, the pot is not pressurized. Always make sure the float valve is down before attempting to open the lid.

INNER LID

SEALING RING: You'll notice several components if you flip the lid upside down. The sealing ring is the silicone piece that runs around the perimeter of the lid interior. Without this ring properly in place, the pot can't seal and pressurize.

FLOAT VALVE: The underside of the float valve is covered with a silicone cap. This cap keeps the valve cleared of food debris.

ANTI-BLOCK SHIELD: The round anti-block shield covers the interior side of the steam release valve and prevents food and foam from interfering with steam release. This is an important safety piece because it ensures pressure can release from the valve as needed.

COOKING WITH AN INSTANT POT

The Instant Pot goes far beyond simply pressure cooking. This multi-cooker also sautés, slow cooks, and makes yogurt. Get the most out of your Instant Pot by learning about the various settings, as well as how to use standard and additional accessories.

PRESSURE COOK

This is the setting you'll probably use most often. You can choose Low or High pressure, as well as the cooking time, on the control panel.

STEAM

The Steam setting, which is a pressure cooking function, is a great option for cooking vegetables because it retains more nutrients and color. The recipes in this book use the High pressure setting. Use the trivet or steam rack and the quick release method to avoid overcooked veggies.

SLOW COOK

Use the Low temperature setting to correspond to a low (8-hour) slow cooker setting; use the Medium temperature to correspond to a medium (6-hour) slow cooker setting; use High to correspond to a high (4-hour) slow cooker setting. This function is also great for making dry foods such as granola. Make sure the valve is set to the venting position, or use a glass lid, as this is not a pressure function.

SAUTÉ

This is a great way to bring out the flavor of ingredients before pressure cooking, to crisp up foods, to simmer soups, and to reduce sauces. The recipes in this book usually recommend the Medium setting, but the High setting is useful when boiling down a sauce, and Low is useful when cooking foods that can easily burn.

CAKE

This High pressure mode creates a very moist, dense cake. The Low mode creates a lighter, moister cake.

BEAN/CHILI

If you want firmer-textured beans, use the High pressure setting. For softer beans, use the Low pressure setting.

RICE

This setting cooks on lower pressure and is best for white, rather than brown rice. For rice with a firmer texture, use the Low mode, and for rice with a softer texture, use the High mode.

SOUP/BROTH

This program brings soups to a slow simmer and also results in a clear broth. For most vegetable soups, the Low setting is best.

YOGURT

The Medium mode is used for fermenting milk, while the High mode is used for pasteurizing milk. The Easy Vanilla Yogurt Jars in this book skip the pasteurizing step.

Pressure Cooking Times

There are several timing components to take into consideration before beginning a recipe.

- PREP: The time needed to get all your ingredients ready to cook, such as peeling or chopping.
- BUILD: The time it takes the Instant Pot to reach pressure. Your display time will not begin counting down until your pot has reached pressure. The build time can vary depending on a number of factors, including the total volume of food in the pot, the temperature of the food, atmospheric pressure, and room temperature. As a general rule, recipes take 5 to 15 minutes to come to pressure.
- PRESSURE: The cook time you'll be setting on the pot. Keep in mind that the food will also be cooking during the build and any natural release times.
- RELEASE: The time it takes to release the pressure from the pot. Once the cook time is complete, the LED display will automatically begin to count upward as the natural release occurs. With the natural release method, the time it takes for the pot to release all pressure will vary greatly depending on the volume of food—usually it's between 5 and 30 minutes. If you use the quick release method, it will only take about 1 minute. Many recipes call for letting the pot naturally release for a specified time before manually releasing any remaining pressure.

- TOTAL: The approximate time it will take to make the dish from start to finish. This includes additional preparations after pressure cooking, such as simmering, broiling, roasting, or cooling.

TROUBLESHOOTING

OVERCOOKED VEGETABLES: One of the challenges when starting out with pressure cooking is choosing cook times. To avoid mushy vegetables, err on the lower end of the cook times. You can always lock the lid and cook longer, but you can't "un-cook" an overcooked dish. Remember that cooking begins during the build time and continues through release time. To steam broccoli, for example, I set the pressure cook time to 0 minutes because it cooks perfectly during the build time.

BURN WARNING: This frustrating situation comes about when the pot overheats. Often, ingredients have become stuck to the bottom of the pot during cooking. The Instant Pot will automatically reduce the temperature and may not reach pressure. To avoid this, you must use enough liquid. Try to avoid cooking with very thick liquids, such as tomato sauce. For example, when making the Mexican Rice recipe, it's crucial to layer the tomatoes on top without stirring so that the rice can cook without the tomatoes burning on the bottom. After sautéing, prevent the burn warning by deglazing the pot and scraping up any bits stuck to the bottom with a spatula.

NOT COMING TO PRESSURE: Check that the valve is set to the sealing position and the sealing ring is properly positioned. The pot also must be filled with enough liquid for pressure to build.

STEAM LEAKING OUT FROM UNDER LID: This is usually a sealing ring issue. Remove the lid and ensure the ring is properly positioned, undamaged, and free of food particles.

ACCESSORIES

Trivet or steam rack

This accessory comes with the Instant Pot. It raises food or another dish off the bottom of the pot. It's ideal for pot-in-pot cooking (placing a second vessel within the inner pot) and for steaming larger vegetables. Older models come with a trivet, and newer models come with a steam rack with handles.

Springform pan

A springform pan is useful when making cakes, cheesecakes, and casseroles such as lasagna. Look for a 6- to 7-inch (15.25–17.5cm) pan that will fit inside the inner pot.

Steamer basket

This accessory helps to steam food that would otherwise fall through the trivet. Look for a stainless steel or silicone model with legs, which allows steam to circulate. Ensure it's a size that fits in the pot.

Ramekins and Instant Pot-safe bowls

These are useful for pot-in-pot cooking. Ramekins are perfect for individual desserts, such as apple crisp. Larger Instant Pot-safe dishes, such as Pyrex, are ideal for cooking rice and other dishes on the trivet.

Tempered glass lid

A vented glass lid is useful for cooking without pressure, such as during the Slow Cook and Yogurt programs. You can buy an Instant Pot glass lid, but you might already have a standard pot or pan lid that fits the Instant Pot.

YOUR VEGAN PANTRY

Stock your kitchen with whole food staples and you'll be ready to whip up a nutritious meal any time. I love to purchase dry staples from bulk bins and store them in glass jars, which is a more economical and environmentally friendly way to cook. Here are some plant-based staples to get you started.

FRUITS AND VEGETABLES

For the best flavor and price, it's best to use in-season produce. Staples to keep on hand year-round include onions, garlic, carrots, celery, potatoes, canned or boxed tomatoes, fresh spinach or kale, and fresh herbs. These ingredients are the base for many one-pot meals. Frozen produce is a nutritious and economical way to enjoy seasonal foods like berries and peaches year-round.

LEGUMES

The Instant Pot shines when it comes to legumes, and it makes switching from canned to dried easy. Some legumes to keep on hand include green and red lentils, chickpeas, black beans, pinto beans, white beans, and black-eyed peas.

GRAINS

Rice and other grains are a great base, side, or ingredient for many plant-based recipes. Stock up on rolled and steel-cut oats, brown and white rice, Arborio rice, quinoa, farro, millet, and pasta.

OILS

Those on a strict whole food, plant-based diet do not consume any oils because they are not whole foods. If you would like to cook without oil, you can still use many of the recipes in this cookbook. Simply omit the oil called for in sautéing and dry sauté, or use a splash of water or vegetable broth. If you do use oil, here are some healthy ones to keep on hand: extra virgin olive oil, coconut oil, sesame oil, and avocado oil.

FLOURS

Almond flour, all-purpose flour, and whole wheat pastry flour are the ones I use most often. There are several great gluten-free, all-purpose flours on the market today, as well. Oat flour is also great for gluten-free baking, and it's easy to make by grinding certified gluten-free oats in a blender.

NUTS AND SEEDS

Nuts and seeds are a good source of plant-based protein and healthy fats; sprinkle them on salads and breakfast bowls. Almonds, walnuts, raw cashews, flax seeds or meal, pepitas, hemp seeds, chia seeds, and nut butters are great to keep in stock.

SWEETENERS

Refined white sugar is not necessary for deliciously sweet treats. Choose instead pure maple syrup, agave nectar, coconut sugar, and organic stevia.

BROTHS and STOCKS

Keep several boxes of vegetable broth or stock in the pantry so you're always ready to make a soup or risotto. You can also make your own broth and store it in the refrigerator or freezer. For rich stews like vegan bourguignon or soup with that classic chicken soup flavor, keep vegan chicken bouillon and vegan beef bouillon on hand.

MILK ALTERNATIVES

There are many dairy-free milk varieties on the market today: almond, soy, cashew, oat, flax, hemp, pea, and more. Try a few to find which you like best. Stick with unsweetened milk alternatives to reduce sugar intake and so that you can control the sweetness by adding your own to taste.

CHEESE ALTERNATIVES

Once soaked, raw cashews can be blended into an incredibly creamy sauce and used to make everything from homemade vegan cream cheese, to alfredo sauce and macaroni and cheese. Raw slivered almonds work similarly and are wonderful for making vegan ricotta. Store-bought dairy alternatives you may wish to keep in the refrigerator include vegan butter such as Miyoko's, cream cheese such as Kite Hill, Parmesan such as Follow Your Heart, and a soft artisan cheese such as Treeline or Miyoko's. Nutritional yeast can add the rich umami you'd get from cheese, as well as vitamins and minerals.

EGG REPLACEMENTS

For baking, you can create a vegan “egg” by mixing 1 tablespoon flax meal or chia seeds with 3 tablespoons water and letting sit until gelled, about 5 minutes. The best commercial egg replacer for baking I've found is Bob's Red Mill Egg Replacer. For savory egg-like dishes, extra-firm tofu makes a great scramble. Chickpea flour bakes up into an incredibly egg-like consistency in omelets, quiches, and frittatas.

TOFU SCRAMBLE BREAKFAST BURRITO

Warm, filling, and protein-rich breakfast burritos filled with potatoes, tofu scramble, greens, and avocado are a delicious way to start the day or refuel after a workout.

SERVES: 2

PREP: 5 MINUTES

PRESSURE: 2 MINUTES

TOTAL: 20 MINUTES

SETTINGS: PRESSURE COOK (HIGH),
SAUTÉ (HIGH)

RELEASE: QUICK

---

2 cups water

2 small Yukon Gold potatoes, cut into 1-in (2.5cm) chunks

2 tbsp extra virgin olive oil

10oz (285g) (about 1½ cups) firm organic tofu, drained and crumbled

½ tsp ground turmeric

2 tbsp nutritional yeast

½ tsp sea salt

Pinch of freshly ground black pepper

¼ cup unsweetened plant-based milk (optional for a softer texture)

2 (10-in; 25cm) flour tortillas, warmed (gluten-free, if needed)

½ avocado, sliced

1 cup fresh baby spinach or arugula

¼ cup salsa

- 1 Add 2 cups water to the inner pot, and fit with a steamer basket. Place the potato chunks in the steamer basket. Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 2 minutes.
- 2 Once the cook time is complete, immediately quick release the pressure. Carefully remove the lid and steamer basket. Drain the water from the inner pot and place the pot back into the Instant Pot.
- 3 Select Sauté (High), and heat the oil until very hot. Add the potatoes and cook, turning occasionally, until crisp on the outside, about 3 minutes. Use a spatula to remove the potatoes from the pot and set aside on a plate.
- 4 Add the crumbled tofu, turmeric, nutritional yeast, salt, and pepper to the pot, and sauté for 1 to 2 minutes until hot. If desired for a softer scramble, add the milk and simmer until warm and the milk has evaporated and absorbed.
- 5 To assemble the burritos, place the potatoes and tofu scramble on the warm tortillas. Top with equal portions of avocado, greens, and salsa. Roll into burritos and enjoy immediately.

CHIPOTLE HUEVOS-LESS RANCHEROS

This lighter take on the favorite Mexican brunch is made with smoky, spicy chipotle black bean tofu scramble and plenty of fresh toppings.

---

SERVES: 4

PREP: 5 MINUTES

PRESSURE: 27 MINUTES

TOTAL: 45 MINUTES

SETTINGS: SAUTÉ (MEDIUM), PRESSURE
COOK (HIGH)

RELEASE: NATURAL, QUICK

---

2 tsp extra virgin olive oil, divided

1/2 yellow onion, diced

2 cups water

1/2 cup dry black beans, rinsed

1 chipotle pepper in adobo sauce

1/2 tsp garlic powder

3/4 tsp sea salt, plus more to taste

1 tsp adobo sauce

8oz (225g) extra-firm tofu, drained

Pinch of ground turmeric

8 small corn tortillas, warmed in the microwave or lightly charred in a skillet

1 cup baby spinach

1 avocado, sliced

1 cup pico de gallo

2 radishes, thinly sliced

1 cup fresh cilantro

1 Select Sauté (Medium), and heat 1 teaspoon oil (optional), in the inner pot until hot. (Otherwise, you can dry sauté in the hot pot or add a bit of water in the bottom of the pot.) Add the onion and sauté until softened and golden, 3 to 5 minutes. Press Cancel. Add 2 cups water, beans, chipotle pepper, and garlic powder.

2 Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 27 minutes.

3 Once the cook time is complete, allow the pressure to release naturally for 10 minutes, then quick release any remaining pressure. Carefully remove the lid. Stir in the salt, and remove and discard the chipotle pepper. Transfer to a medium bowl. Add the adobo sauce  $\frac{1}{4}$  tsp at a time to add heat to taste, if desired.

4 Rinse out the inner pot and place back into the Instant Pot. Select Sauté (High), and heat the remaining 1 teaspoon oil. Pat the tofu with paper towels to soak up as much water as possible. Crumble the tofu into the pot with the hot oil. Season with turmeric and salt. Sauté until hot, about 2 minutes. Drain the beans and add them into the tofu scramble, or keep them separate. Press Cancel.

5 To assemble the dish, place the warm tortillas on plates. Top with a few spinach leaves and the bean and tofu scramble, avocado, pico de gallo, radish, and cilantro. Enjoy immediately.

tip For a soy-free option, skip the tofu scramble and top with vegan sour cream.

---

1 cup water

4 cups (1-in; 2.5cm) russet potato cubes (about 2 potatoes)

4 tbsp extra virgin olive oil, divided

1 small yellow onion, diced

1 red bell pepper, deseeded and diced

8oz (225g) sliced baby bella mushrooms

1 zucchini, diced

1 tsp paprika

1 tsp garlic powder

Sea salt, to taste

Freshly ground black pepper, to taste

2 cups roughly chopped curly kale or spinach

½ cup fresh basil, thinly sliced

- 1 Fit the inner pot with a steamer basket and add 1 cup water. Add the potatoes to the steamer basket. Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 2 minutes.
- 2 Once the cook time is complete, allow the pressure to release naturally for 5 minutes, then quick release any remaining pressure. Carefully remove the lid and make sure the potatoes are fork tender. If not, lock the lid and pressure cook for 1 minute more until tender. Remove the steamer basket.
- 3 While the potatoes are cooking, in a large cast-iron skillet, heat 1 tablespoon oil over medium-high heat. Add the onion and sauté until softened and golden, 3 to 5 minutes. Add the bell pepper, mushrooms, and zucchini, and sauté until tender, about 4 minutes more. Season with paprika, garlic powder, salt, and pepper. Transfer the veggies to another dish, and set aside. Clean out the skillet and return it to the stove.
- 4 Add the remaining 3 tablespoons oil to the skillet, and turn the heat to high, or select Sauté (High) and use the Instant Pot. When the oil is hot, add the steamed potatoes in a single layer, working in batches as needed. Let cook 1 minute until browned on the bottom, then flip. Continue cooking until the potatoes are browned on all sides, turning and adding more oil as needed. It's okay if some pieces get stuck to the bottom—try to scrape up stuck pieces with a metal spatula.

5 Add the kale or spinach and the sautéed veggies. Toss to wilt the greens. Season to taste with additional salt and pepper. Garnish with fresh basil and serve immediately.

tip You can make this dish entirely in the Instant Pot by cooking the vegetables on Sauté (High), but it's much quicker to sauté the vegetables on the stove while the potatoes are steaming in the Instant Pot. Whether you're making french fries or breakfast hash, the secret to potatoes that are fluffy on the inside and crispy on the outside is steaming, then frying in plenty of oil over high heat.

LEEK, ASPARAGUS, AND SPINACH FRITTATA

This savory breakfast or brunch recipe is great for those times you're craving fresh green vegetables. Chickpea flour imparts a soft egg-like texture, and the leek and asparagus add a tender-crisp crunch.

SERVES: 6

PREP: 10 MINUTES

PRESSURE: 8 MINUTES

SETTINGS: SAUTÉ (HIGH), PRESSURE
COOK (HIGH)

RELEASE: QUICK

---

1 cup chickpea flour (also called garbanzo bean or gram flour)

1 tsp baking powder

1 tsp garlic powder

1/2 tsp sea salt

1/4 tsp freshly ground black pepper

2 1/8 cups water, divided

1/4 tsp apple cider vinegar

1 tsp Dijon mustard

1 tbsp extra virgin olive oil

1 cup chopped leeks (about 1 leek)

1 cup (2-in; 5cm) asparagus pieces (about 1/2 of a bunch)

1 cup packed baby spinach

1/4 cup chopped chives, for garnish

6oz (170g) plain dairy-free yogurt (such as Kite Hill) or soft cheese (such as Miyoko's or Treeline)(optional), for garnish

- 1 Coat a 7-inch (17.5cm) springform pan with cooking spray, or brush with olive oil. Set aside. In a medium mixing bowl, whisk together the chickpea flour, baking powder, garlic powder, salt, and pepper. Add 1 1/8 cup water, vinegar, and mustard, and whisk vigorously until bubbly and well combined, about 1 minute. Set aside.
- 2 Select Sauté (High), and heat the oil in the inner pot, or use a medium skillet over medium-high heat. Sauté the leeks and asparagus with a pinch of salt and pepper until the asparagus is just tender, about 5 minutes. Add the spinach and sauté until wilted, about 1 minute.
- 3 Evenly spread the vegetables in the springform pan. If you used the inner pot to sauté, clean it out and place back in the Instant Pot. Pour the chickpea flour mixture over the vegetables. Cover the top of the pan with foil.
- 4 Fit the inner pot with the trivet or steam rack, and add the remaining 1 cup water. Place the pan on the trivet. Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 8 minutes.

- 5 Once the cook time is complete, immediately quick release the pressure. Carefully remove the lid and the pan. Remove the foil and let the pan rest on a cooling rack for 5 minutes.
- 6 Use a thin knife, if needed, to release the frittata from the sides of the pan. Remove the sides of the pan. If desired, place on a cookie sheet and broil for a few minutes to brown the top.
- 7 Cut into slices and serve immediately, garnished with chives and yogurt or cheese, if desired. This recipe is best served right when it's made because the frittata will become more dense the longer it sits.

tip Chickpea flour is commonly used in Italian and French recipes like socca or farinata; in Indian cooking, where it's known as gram flour; and in gluten-free baking. Find chickpea flour in natural foods stores, online, or at Indian markets.

LOADED BREAKFAST SWEET POTATO

This naturally sweet breakfast is warm and filling. The soft sweet potato gets just the right amount of crunch from the toasted almonds and hemp seeds.

SERVES: 2

PREP: 2 MINUTES

PRESSURE: 12 MINUTES

TOTAL: 30 MINUTES

SETTINGS: PRESSURE COOK (HIGH)

RELEASE: NATURAL, QUICK

1 medium sweet potato

1 cup water

Pinch of ground cinnamon

2 tbsp almond butter

1/4 cup slivered almonds, toasted

2 tbsp hemp seeds

- 1 Wash and dry the sweet potato. Pierce all over with a fork. Fit the inner pot with the trivet or steam rack, and add 1 cup water. Place the sweet potato on the trivet.

- 2 Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 12 minutes.
- 3 Once the cook time is complete, allow the pressure to release naturally for 10 minutes, then quick release any remaining pressure. Carefully remove the lid and make sure the sweet potato is fork-tender. If not, lock the lid and pressure cook for 3 minutes more, or until tender.
- 4 Carefully remove the potato with tongs. Cut in half lengthwise and place on two serving plates. Top with a pinch of cinnamon and a drizzle of almond butter. Sprinkle almonds and hemp seeds on top. Serve warm.

LOWER-SUGAR STRAWBERRY CHIA JAM

This lower-sugar jam uses maple syrup as an unrefined sweetener. It is easy to make, and it tastes wonderful on toast with almond butter, on pancakes, in oatmeal, or in breakfast quinoa.

MAKES: ABOUT 1½ CUPS

PRESSURE: 1 MINUTE

TOTAL: 25 MINUTES

SETTINGS: PRESSURE COOK (HIGH),
SAUTÉ (MEDIUM)

RELEASE: NATURAL

---

12oz (340g) fresh or frozen strawberries

2 tbsp fresh lemon juice

1 tbsp pure maple syrup

1 tbsp water

1 tbsp arrowroot starch

1 tbsp chia seeds

- 1 Add the strawberries, lemon juice, and maple syrup to the inner pot. Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 1 minute.
  - 2 Once the cook time is complete, allow the pressure to release naturally. Carefully remove the lid—it will look very watery with soft strawberries. Mash the strawberries with a wooden spoon.
  - 3 Make a slurry by whisking together 1 tablespoon water and arrowroot in a small bowl. Stir the slurry into the pot. Simmer on Sauté (Medium) until thickened, 2 to 3 minutes, stirring with a wooden spoon. Stir in the chia seeds.
  - 4 Transfer the jam to a glass storage container and let cool to room temperature. Secure the lid and store in the refrigerator for up to 5 days.

tip Add more sweetness with an extra splash of maple syrup or a few drops of liquid stevia to taste.*

EASY VANILLA YOGURT JARS

Thick, rich, and creamy homemade vanilla bean yogurt tastes so much better than store-bought. Top with berries and Crunchy Granola for a delicious and nutritious grab-and-go breakfast.

SERVES: 4

PREP: 5 MINUTES

PRESSURE: 18 HOURS

TOTAL: 20 HOURS

SETTINGS: YOGURT (MEDIUM)

RELEASE: NONE

---

4 cups plain soy or pea-based milk (recommended WestSoy, Trader Joe's Organic Soy Beverage, or Ripple)

1 (5oz; 140g) container plain or vanilla vegan yogurt with live cultures (such as Silk or Kite Hill)

2 tsp vanilla bean paste, or seeds from 1 vanilla bean

Organic liquid stevia (optional), to taste

- 1 Pour the milk and yogurt into a medium bowl. Whisk until completely combined. Whisk in the vanilla bean paste or seeds. If desired, sweeten to taste with a few drops of liquid stevia.
- 2 Pour the milk mixture evenly into 4 pint-sized glass jars. Place the jars directly into the inner pot, not on a trivet. (You won't need any water in the pot because it is not using pressure.)
- 3 Place the glass lid on top of the Instant Pot, or use your regular lid with the steam release valve in the venting position. Select Yogurt (Medium), and set the cook time for 18 hours. Your yogurt is ready when it's thick; this may take anywhere from 13 to 20 hours. Once the yogurt is the desired consistency, remove the jars and secure with the lids. Store in the refrigerator for up to 1 week.
- 4 Enjoy your homemade yogurt cold. The top half of each jar will be empty and ready to be filled with your favorite fruit or granola and a splash of maple syrup.

tip For future batches of yogurt, there's no need to buy commercial yogurt because you can use your homemade yogurt as the starter!

Not all plant-based milks work for this easy yogurt recipe. It's important to use a higher-protein milk like soy or pea milk. The brands that work best are WestSoy or Trader Joe's Organic Soy Beverage cartons and Ripple. Natural almond and coconut milk beverages will result in runny yogurt that never sets up.

CRUNCHY GRANOLA

Lightly sweet, this crunchy granola is filled with nourishing seeds and nuts. It makes an excellent breakfast or snack with yogurt or almond milk and berries.

PREP: 10 MINUTES

PRESSURE: 4 HOURS

TOTAL: 5 HOURS

SETTINGS: SLOW COOK (LOW)

RELEASE: NONE

---

1 cup old-fashioned rolled oats (certified gluten-free, if needed)

½ cup raw, hulled sunflower seeds

½ cup raw, hulled pepitas (pumpkin seeds)

½ cup raw pecans, roughly chopped

⅓ cup hemp seeds

½ tsp ground cinnamon

1 tsp coconut sugar

⅛ tsp sea salt

2½ tbsp melted coconut oil, plus more to grease

2½ tbsp pure maple syrup

- 1 Lightly rub the bottom of the inner pot with a little bit of coconut oil or lightly coat with cooking spray.
- 2 In a medium bowl, mix the oats, sunflower seeds, pepitas, pecans, hemp seeds, cinnamon, coconut sugar, and salt.
- 3 Drizzle the coconut oil and maple syrup over the granola mixture. Toss with your hands or a spatula until well combined.
- 4 Transfer the mixture to the inner pot. Partially cover the Instant Pot with a glass lid, if you have one, or use the standard lid with the steam release valve set to the venting position. Select Slow Cook (Low), and set the cook time for 4 hours. Stir halfway through, and slow cook until crunchy. Press Cancel.
- 5 Let the granola cool completely in the pot, and then stir. Transfer to a lidded storage container, and store for up to 1 week at room temperature.

RELEASE: NATURAL

4 cups sliced stone fruit (plums, apricots, or peaches)

1 tbsp fresh lemon juice

1 tbsp pure maple syrup or agave nectar

1/2 tsp vanilla bean paste or extract

Pinch of ground cinnamon

1/8 cup water

- 1 In the inner pot, stir together all ingredients. Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position.

Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 1 minute.

2 Once the cook time is complete, allow the pressure to release naturally. Carefully remove the lid and select Sauté (High). Simmer for 2 minutes to thicken. Press Cancel. Taste and add additional syrup or cinnamon, if desired. Serve warm. Store in an airtight container in the refrigerator for up to 1 week.

JACKFRUIT TACOS with Guacamole

Mildly spicy jackfruit filling—similar to shredded chicken in texture—makes a great base for veggie tacos. Serve with a side of Fat-Free Refried Beans for a delicious Mexican-inspired meal.

SERVES: 4

PREP: 10 MINUTES

PRESSURE: 5 MINUTES

TOTAL: 30 MINUTES

SETTINGS: SAUTÉ (MEDIUM), PRESSURE
COOK (HIGH)

RELEASE: NATURAL, QUICK

---

FOR THE JACKFRUIT:

2 (20oz; 570g) cans green jackfruit in brine or water

1 tbsp extra virgin olive oil (optional)

1 yellow onion, diced

4 cloves garlic, minced

1 cup vegetable broth
1 tbsp taco seasoning
1 tsp ground cumin
1 tbsp coconut sugar
1/4 tsp sea salt

FOR THE GUACAMOLE:

2 ripe avocados, pitted
Juice of 1 lime
1/2 jalapeño, deseeded and finely chopped
1 small shallot, finely chopped
2 tbsp chopped cilantro
1/8 tsp sea salt

FOR SERVING:

1 package corn tortillas, warmed (gluten-free, if needed)
1 cup shredded cabbage
1/2 small red onion, thinly sliced
2 radishes, thinly sliced
Freshly chopped cilantro

1 Drain and rinse the jackfruit in a colander. Pat with a paper towel to remove some of the excess water. Cut the jackfruit into 1/2-inch (1.25cm) pieces going with the direction of the fibers, from the core outward.

2 Select Sauté (Medium), and heat the oil, if using, in the inner pot until hot. (Otherwise, you can dry sauté in the hot pot or add a bit of water in the bottom of the pot.) Add the onion and sauté until softened and golden, 3 to 5 minutes. Add the garlic and sauté for 1 minute more. Add the broth to deglaze the pan, scraping up any bits stuck to the bottom.

- 3 Place the jackfruit pieces on top of the broth. Sprinkle with taco seasoning, cumin, coconut sugar, and salt. Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 5 minutes.
- 4 Once the cook time is complete, allow the pressure to release naturally for 3 minutes, then quick release any remaining pressure. Carefully remove the lid. Use a potato masher to smash the jackfruit into stringy, bite-sized pieces. Adjust with salt or taco seasoning to taste. The filling will be soft and moist; if you'd like to dry it out a bit, select Sauté (High) and cook for about 2 minutes until some juices have evaporated.
- 5 Meanwhile, make the guacamole. In a small bowl, mash the avocados. Stir in the remaining ingredients. Taste and add more salt and lime juice, if desired.
- 6 To assemble each taco, top a warm tortilla with the jackfruit filling, a generous dollop of guacamole, cabbage, red onion, a few radish slices, and fresh cilantro. Serve immediately.

tip You may notice seeds in your jackfruit. Though some people discard them, they are edible.*

COOK (HIGH)

RELEASE: QUICK

---

1 tbsp extra virgin olive oil (optional)

1/2 yellow onion, cut into 1/4-in (0.5cm) slices

1 red bell pepper, deseeded and cut into 1/4-in (0.5cm) slices

1 yellow bell pepper, deseeded and cut into 1/4-in (0.5cm) slices

Sea salt, to taste

Freshly ground black pepper, to taste

3/4 cup red enchilada sauce (gluten-free, if needed), divided

2 cups cooked black beans, drained

6 (6-in; 5.25cm) corn tortillas

½ cup vegan Cheddar cheese shreds (such as So Delicious or Daiya)

1 cup water

½ cup fresh cilantro leaves, for serving

1 avocado, sliced, for serving

- 1 Select Sauté (Medium), and heat the oil, if using, in the inner pot until hot. (Otherwise, you can dry sauté in the hot pot or add a bit of water in the bottom of the pot.) Add the onion and peppers and season with salt and pepper. Sauté until softened and golden, 5 to 10 minutes. Press Cancel and transfer the veggies to a plate. Rinse the inner pot and place back in the Instant Pot.
- 2 Coat the bottom of a 7-inch (17.5cm) springform pan with ¼ cup enchilada sauce. Cover the sauce with tortillas, tearing as needed to fit. Overlapping a little is okay.
- 3 Top the tortillas with 1 cup beans in an even layer. Top the beans with a layer of half of the cooked onions and peppers.
- 4 Top the peppers and onions with another layer of tortillas, tearing as needed, then another ¼ cup sauce, 1 cup beans, and the remaining peppers and onions.
- 5 Finally, top the second layer of peppers with a third layer of tortillas and the remaining ¼ cup sauce. Sprinkle the cheese evenly over the top of the sauce.
- 6 Wrap the whole springform pan, under and over, with foil. Fit the inner pot with the trivet or steam rack, and add 1 cup water. Place the foil-wrapped pan onto the trivet. Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 25 minutes.

7 Once the cook time is complete, immediately quick release the pressure and carefully remove the lid. Remove the pan and discard the foil. Let the enchilada bake cool for 10 minutes. Cut into quarters and serve garnished with cilantro and avocado slices.

EASY BEAN AND RICE BURRITOS

With similar cook times, dried black beans and brown rice can easily be pressure cooked simultaneously using the pot-in-pot method so you have homemade burritos on the table in record time.

SERVES: 6

PREP: 5 MINUTES

PRESSURE: 25 MINUTES

TOTAL: 1 HOUR

SETTINGS: PRESSURE COOK (HIGH)

RELEASE: NATURAL

Juice of 1 lime

1 cup homemade or store-bought guacamole

1 small head romaine lettuce, chopped

1/2 cup fresh cilantro leaves (optional)

Hot sauce or fresh salsa (optional)

6 flour tortillas (gluten-free, if needed), warmed

FOR THE BLACK BEANS:

1 cup dried black beans, picked over and rinsed

2½ cups water
1 tsp ground cumin
1 tsp dried oregano
½ tsp garlic powder
Sea salt, to taste

FOR THE BROWN RICE:

1 cup long-grain brown rice, rinsed
1 cup water
Pinch of sea salt

- 1 To make the black beans, in the inner pot, add the beans, 2½ cups water, cumin, oregano, and garlic powder, and stir to combine. Do not add the salt to beans until after cooking to prevent toughness. Place the trivet over the beans.
- 2 Prepare the brown rice. In an oven-safe bowl or baking dish, such as Pyrex, add the rice, 1 cup water, and salt. Place the dish on the trivet.
- 3 Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 25 minutes.
- 4 Once the cook time is complete, allow the pressure to release naturally for 15 minutes, then quick release any remaining pressure. Carefully remove the lid. With oven mitts, carefully take the dish of rice off the trivet and remove the trivet. Season the beans with salt to taste. Squeeze the lime juice over the beans and rice.
- 5 To assemble each burrito, spoon the rice, beans, guacamole, lettuce, cilantro, and hot sauce or salsa (if using) onto a tortilla. Roll up and enjoy immediately.

PORTOBELLO MUSHROOM BURGERS

These juicy burgers have all the classic flavor and texture you'd expect from a burger. Cooking Portobello mushrooms in the Instant Pot makes homemade veggie burgers easier than ever.

SERVES: 4

PREP: 15 MINUTES

PRESSURE: 2 MINUTES

TOTAL: 30 MINUTES

SETTINGS: PRESSURE COOK (HIGH)

RELEASE: QUICK

4 portobello mushrooms
1/4 cup balsamic vinegar
2 tbsp tamari or soy sauce
3 cloves garlic, minced
1 cup water

FOR SERVING:

4 vegan hamburger buns, toasted
1 avocado, sliced or mashed
1 small red onion, sliced into rings
1 large tomato, sliced
1 small head romaine lettuce
Ketchup, to taste
Yellow or Dijon mustard, to taste

- 1 Rinse and dry the mushrooms. Remove the mushroom stems and scrape out the gills with a spoon. In a medium bowl, whisk together the balsamic vinegar, tamari, and garlic. Add the mushrooms to the bowl and brush with the marinade. Let sit for 15 minutes.
- 2 Fit the inner pot with the trivet or steam rack and add 1 cup water. Remove the mushrooms from the marinade and place top-down on the trivet, overlapping slightly if needed.
- 3 Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 2 minutes.
- 4 Once the cook time is complete, immediately quick release the pressure and carefully remove the lid. Use tongs to remove the mushrooms from the pot.
- 5 Assemble each burger by topping the bottom bun with avocado, 1 mushroom, onion, tomato, and lettuce. Spread the top bun with ketchup and mustard. Enjoy immediately.

PULLED JACKFRUIT SANDWICHES

with Coleslaw

Sweet, smoky, and savory BBQ jackfruit paired with fresh, crunchy coleslaw makes a delicious sandwich filling.

---

SERVES: 4

PREP: 10 MINUTES

PRESSURE: 5 MINUTES

TOTAL: 30 MINUTES

SETTINGS: PRESSURE COOK (HIGH),
SAUTÉ (MEDIUM)

RELEASE: NATURAL, QUICK

---

2 (20oz; 570g) cans jackfruit in brine or water

1 cup water

½ cup Homemade BBQ Sauce, or vegan store-bought BBQ sauce (gluten-free, if needed), plus more for serving

FOR THE COLESLAW:

¼ cup vegan mayonnaise (gluten-free, if needed)

1 tbsp pure maple syrup

2 tbsp apple cider vinegar

Sea salt, to taste

Freshly ground black pepper, to taste

4 cups shredded cabbage (about 9oz; 255g bag)

1 medium carrot, shredded

FOR SERVING:

4 vegan buns or multigrain bread, toasted (gluten-free, if needed)

1 tomato, sliced

Sliced pickles

1 small red onion, thinly sliced

1 Drain and rinse the jackfruit in a colander. Cut the jackfruit into ½-inch (1.25cm) pieces going with the direction of the fibers, from the core outward.

2 Fit the inner pot with a steamer basket, and add 1 cup water. Add the jackfruit pieces to the steamer basket. Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 5 minutes.

3 Once the cook time is complete, allow the pressure to release naturally for 3 minutes, then quick release any remaining pressure. Carefully remove the lid. Remove the steamer basket, drain the water, and return the jackfruit to the inner pot. Select Sauté (Medium), and add the BBQ sauce. Use a potato masher to mash the jackfruit into stringy, bite-sized pieces.

4 Meanwhile, make the coleslaw. In a medium bowl, whisk together the mayonnaise, maple syrup, vinegar, and a pinch of salt and pepper to taste. Toss in the cabbage and carrot to coat.

5 To serve, top the buns with a generous layer of coleslaw and jackfruit. Top with tomato, pickles, and red onion. Serve immediately with more BBQ sauce on the side.

tip For a heartier sandwich with more protein, add 1½ cups cooked white beans, such as cannellini, after “pulling” the jackfruit. Let the beans heat up with the BBQ sauce on Sauté mode.

LENTIL SLOPPY JOES

These sloppy joes have all the flavor you remember from childhood, but without the ground beef. Top with your favorite veggies, vegan coleslaw, or the suggested toppings below for an easy family dinner.

SERVES: 8

PREP: 5 MINUTES

PRESSURE: 15 MINUTES

TOTAL: 40 MINUTES

SETTINGS: SAUTÉ (MEDIUM), PRESSURE
COOK (HIGH)

RELEASE: NATURAL

---

- 1lb (450g) dried green or brown lentils
- 1 tbsp extra virgin olive oil (optional)
- 1 yellow onion, chopped
- 1 green bell pepper, deseeded and chopped
- 1 (15oz; 420g) can tomato sauce
- ½ cup ketchup
- 2 tbsp yellow mustard
- 2 tbsp pure maple syrup

1 tbsp chili powder
2 tbsp apple cider vinegar
1 tbsp vegan Worcestershire sauce (gluten-free, if needed)
(see tip)
4 cups vegetable broth

FOR SERVING:

6 vegan buns, lightly toasted
1 small red onion, thinly sliced
2 cups baby greens, such as arugula
1 avocado (optional), sliced

- 1 Pick over the lentils and discard any stones or debris. Rinse and drain the lentils.
- 2 Select Sauté (Medium), and heat the oil, if using, in the inner pot until hot. (Otherwise, you can dry sauté in the hot pot or add a bit of water in the bottom of the pot.) Add the onion and bell pepper and sauté until softened and golden, 3 to 5 minutes. Press Cancel.
- 3 Add the rinsed lentils, tomato sauce, ketchup, mustard, syrup, chili powder, vinegar, Worcestershire sauce, and vegetable broth. Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 15 minutes.
- 4 Once the cook time is complete, allow the pressure to release naturally for 10 to 15 minutes, then quick release any remaining pressure. Carefully remove the lid.
- 5 Add the lentil sloppy joe filling to the buns, and top with slices of onion, greens, and avocado, if using. Serve immediately.

FALAFEL PITAS

with Tahini Sauce

The best falafel are made with soaked chickpeas—not cooked or canned. Here, chickpeas get a quick soak in the Instant Pot rather than waiting 12 hours or more.

SERVES: 6

PREP: 10 MINUTES

PRESSURE: 20 MINUTES

TOTAL: 1 HOUR

SETTINGS: PRESSURE COOK (HIGH),
SAUTÉ (HIGH)

RELEASE: NATURAL

---

- 1 cup dried chickpeas, rinsed
- 4 cups water
- 1 small yellow onion, chopped
- 4 cloves garlic, roughly chopped
- ½ cup fresh cilantro leaves
- ½ cup flat-leaf parsley leaves

2 tbsp fresh lemon juice
1 tsp ground cumin
1 tsp sea salt
1/4 tsp freshly ground black pepper
1/2 tsp baking powder
1-2 tbsp chickpea flour or all-purpose flour
2 tbsp extra virgin olive oil

FOR THE TAHINI SAUCE:

1/4 cup tahini
3 tbsp fresh lemon juice
1 clove garlic, minced
1/2 tsp sea salt
Pinch of freshly ground black pepper
Pinch of ground cumin
4 tbsp water

FOR SERVING:

6 small pita bread rounds
1 plum tomato, sliced
1 small red onion, sliced
2 cups baby spinach

- 1 Add the chickpeas and 4 cups water to the inner pot. Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 20 minutes.
- 2 Once the cook time is complete, allow the pressure to release naturally. Carefully remove the lid and drain the chickpeas. They will be rehydrated but not completely cooked through.

- 3 Preheat the oven to 425°F (220°C). Transfer the chickpeas to a food processor and add the onion, garlic, cilantro, parsley, lemon juice, cumin, salt, pepper, and baking powder. Pulse until all ingredients are finely chopped but not puréed. Pulse in the flour to help bind the mixture, adding more flour as needed if the mixture is too damp from the still-wet chickpeas or herbs.
- 4 Add the oil to the inner pot or a large skillet. Select Sauté (High), or heat the pan over medium-high heat. Scoop heaping tablespoon-sized balls of the falafel mixture (a small cookie scoop works well) and flatten into  $\frac{3}{4}$ -inch (2cm) thick patties. Fry until well browned on each side, adding more oil as needed.
- 5 Transfer the browned patties to a baking sheet and bake for 10 minutes.
- 6 Meanwhile, make the tahini sauce. In a small bowl, whisk together all ingredients, adding up to 4 tablespoons water as needed to thin.
- 7 Stuff the pita pockets with the falafel, tomato, onion, and spinach. Drizzle with tahini sauce. Serve immediately.

PRESSURE: 12–14 MINUTES

TOTAL: 30 MINUTES

SETTINGS: PRESSURE COOK (HIGH)

RELEASE: NATURAL

---

1 cup water

4 medium russet potatoes

SUGGESTIONS FOR SERVING:

1 batch of Baked Beans

1 batch of Sweet Potato and Quinoa Chili

1 batch of Simple Cashew Cream with nutritional yeast and roasted broccoli florets

- 1 Fit the inner pot with the trivet or steam rack and add 1 cup water. Prick the potatoes a few times all over with a fork so that steam can escape. Place the potatoes on the trivet.
  - 2 Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 12 to 14 minutes. The cook time varies depending on size and can take up to 20 minutes for very large potatoes.
  - 3 Once the cook time is complete, allow the pressure to release naturally. Carefully remove the lid and make sure the potatoes are tender. If not pressure cook for 3 minutes more.
  - 4 Carefully remove the potatoes and cut open. Top with your desired toppings and serve immediately.

tip If you'd like to crisp up the skin once they're cooked, brush with olive oil, sprinkle with sea salt, and place into the oven at 450°F (200°C), directly on the top rack, for 5 minutes.*

SHEPHERD-LESS PIE

A warm and cozy comfort food meal, this meat-free version of shepherd's pie is filled with veggies and topped with mashed potatoes.

SERVES: 6

PREP: 10 MINUTES, PLUS MAKING THE MASHED POTATO TOPPING

PRESSURE: 4 MINUTES

TOTAL: 25 MINUTES

SETTINGS: SAUTÉ (MEDIUM), PRESSURE COOK (HIGH)

RELEASE: QUICK

- 1 tsp extra virgin olive oil (optional)
  - 1 small yellow onion, diced
  - 3 cloves garlic, minced
  - 3 carrots, diced
  - 3 stalks celery, diced
  - 8oz (225g) baby bella mushrooms, quartered
  - 1 cup vegetable broth
  - 1 tbsp chopped fresh rosemary
  - 5 sprigs fresh thyme

2 cups frozen peas
1 tsp sea salt
½ tsp freshly ground black pepper
2 tbsp tomato paste
1½ tbsp arrowroot starch or cornstarch
1½ tbsp cool water
1 batch of Truffled Olive Oil Mashed Potatoes
¼ cup chopped fresh parsley, for garnish

- 1 Select Sauté (Medium), and heat the oil, if using, in the inner pot until hot. (Otherwise, you can dry sauté in the hot pot or add a bit of water in the bottom of the pot.) Add the onion and sauté until softened and golden, 3 to 5 minutes. Add the garlic, carrots, celery, and mushrooms, and sauté 2 minutes more. Add the broth, rosemary, thyme, peas, salt, and pepper, and stir to combine.
- 2 Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 4 minutes.
- 3 Once the cook time is complete, immediately quick release the pressure and carefully remove the lid. Remove and discard the thyme stems. Stir in the tomato paste.
- 4 Preheat the broiler. In a small bowl, whisk together the arrowroot and 1½ tablespoons water. Stir the slurry into the pot to thicken the filling.
- 5 Transfer the filling mixture to a 9-inch (23cm) pie dish. Spread the mashed potatoes over the filling. Place the dish under the broiler until the potatoes are browned at the peaks. Garnish with parsley, and serve immediately.

VEGGIE POT PIE

It's doesn't get much more comforting than warm veggies in a creamy sauce topped with light and buttery puff pastry.

SERVES: 4

PREP: 10 MINUTES

PRESSURE: 3 MINUTES

TOTAL: 45 MINUTES

SETTINGS: SAUTÉ (MEDIUM), PRESSURE
COOK (HIGH)

RELEASE: NATURAL, QUICK

1 sheet frozen vegan puff pastry (such as Aussie Bakery), thawed

1 tbsp extra virgin olive oil (optional)

1 yellow onion, diced

1½ cups diced yellow or red potatoes

3 carrots, sliced

3 celery stalks, sliced

1½ cups 1-in (2.5cm) cubes butternut squash

½ cup frozen corn kernels

1 tsp sea salt

½ tsp freshly ground black pepper

1 tsp dried sage

5 sprigs fresh thyme, divided

1½ cups vegetable broth

1 tsp garlic powder

1½ cups frozen peas, thawed

FOR THE ROUX:

4 tbsp vegan butter (such as Miyoko's)

6 tbsp all-purpose flour

1 Preheat the oven to 400°F (200°C). Roll out the puff pastry on a sheet of parchment or a silicone baking mat. Turn a 9-inch (23cm) pie dish upside down onto the pastry and use as a template to cut a circle just slightly larger than the top of the pie dish. Discard the scraps. Cut slits in the center for decoration. Place on a baking sheet and transfer to the oven. Bake until golden brown and cooked through, about 10 minutes. Set aside.

2 Select Sauté (Medium), and heat the oil, if using, in the inner pot until hot. (Otherwise, you can dry sauté in the hot pot or add a bit of water in the bottom of the pot.) Add the onion and sauté until softened and golden, 3 to 5 minutes. Press Cancel. Add the potatoes, carrots, celery, butternut squash, corn, salt, pepper, sage, leaves from half of the thyme, and broth. Stir to combine.

3 Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 3 minutes.

- 4 Once the cook time is complete, allow the pressure to release naturally for 3 minutes, then quick release any remaining pressure. Carefully remove the lid. Press Cancel.
  - 5 Meanwhile, make the roux. In a small saucepan, melt the butter over medium heat. Whisk in the flour. Cook for 3 minutes, stirring occasionally.
  - 6 Select Sauté (Medium). Whisk the roux into the vegetable mixture. Whisk in the garlic powder and the leaves from the remaining thyme, reserving a few for garnish. Simmer, stirring, until the mixture has thickened, about 2 minutes. Stir in the peas. Press Cancel. Season to taste with salt and pepper.
  - 7 Pour the vegetable pot pie filling into the pie dish. Place the puff pastry crust on top of the filling. Garnish with the remaining thyme leaves. Let cool for 10 minutes, then serve.

tip For a gluten-free option, use a gluten-free pie crust, following the package instructions, and use gluten-free all-purpose flour for the roux.*

WILD RICE AND CHICKPEA STUFFED BUTTERNUT SQUASH

with Cranberries and Pecans

Butternut squash halves are roasted in the oven while a savory and sweet filling of wild rice, cranberries, pecans, and kale is made in the Instant Pot. This beautiful dish is perfect for a holiday dinner.

SERVES: 4

PREP: 5 MINUTES

PRESSURE: 25 MINUTES

TOTAL: 1 HOUR

SETTINGS: SAUTÉ (MEDIUM), PRESSURE COOK (HIGH), WARM (LOW)

RELEASE: NATURAL

---

- 2 medium butternut squash
- 2 tbsp extra virgin olive oil, divided
- 1/2 tsp sea salt, plus more to taste
- Freshly ground black pepper, to taste
- 1 small yellow onion, diced
- 3 cloves garlic, minced

2/3 cup vegetable broth

2/3 cup wild rice mix (brown basmati rice and wild rice), rinsed

2 cups packed chopped curly kale

1/8 tsp ground cayenne pepper

1 tsp ground sage

1 tbsp tamari

1 1/2 cups cooked chickpeas, drained

1/4 cup dried cranberries

1/3 cup chopped pecans

1 cup chopped flat-leaf parsley

1 Preheat the oven to 425°F (220°C). Cut the squash in half lengthwise and scoop out the seeds. Brush the cut sides of the squash with 1 tablespoon oil, and sprinkle with salt and pepper. Place on a baking sheet, cut-side up, and roast until tender and caramelized, about 50 minutes. Scoop the flesh out to create a well along the center of the squash, leaving about a 1-inch (2.5cm) border in the skin. Chop the removed squash flesh into 1-inch (2.5cm) pieces. Set aside.

2 Meanwhile, select Sauté (Medium), and heat the remaining 1 tablespoon oil (optional), in the inner pot until hot. (Otherwise, you can dry sauté in the hot pot or add a bit of water in the bottom of the pot.) Add the onion and sauté until softened and golden, 3 to 5 minutes. Add the garlic and sauté 1 minute more. Add the broth to deglaze the pot, scraping up any bits stuck to the bottom. Add the rice and salt, and stir to combine.

3 Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 25 minutes.

4 Once the cook time is complete, allow the pressure to release naturally. Carefully remove the lid and select Sauté (Medium). Stir in the kale until wilted, about 2 minutes. Select Warm (Low). Stir in all remaining ingredients, including the reserved squash flesh. Spoon the rice mixture into the squash boats. Serve warm.

PRESSURE: 30 MINUTES

TOTAL: 1 HOUR

SETTINGS: SAUTÉ (MEDIUM), PRESSURE COOK (HIGH)

RELEASE: NATURAL

2 cups dried chickpeas, soaked overnight
1 tbsp coconut oil (optional)
1 yellow onion, chopped
4 cloves garlic, minced
1 tbsp freshly grated ginger
1 tbsp cumin seeds
1 tsp garam masala
1 tsp ground turmeric

1 tsp ground coriander
1 bay leaf
2<sup>1</sup>/<sub>4</sub> cups water
1 tsp sea salt
2 cups crushed tomatoes
1/4 tsp ground cayenne (optional)
Juice of 1/2 small lemon

FOR SERVING:

1 batch of Basic White Basmati Rice or Basic Long-Grain Brown Rice
Fresh cilantro leaves
Dairy-free plain yogurt (optional)

- 1 Drain and rinse chickpeas. Select Sauté (Medium), and heat the oil, if using, in the inner pot until hot. (Otherwise, you can dry sauté in the hot pot or add a bit of water in the bottom of the pot.) Add the onion and sauté until softened and golden, 3 to 5 minutes. Add the garlic, ginger, cumin, garam masala, turmeric, coriander, and bay leaf, and sauté 1 minute more. Select Cancel.
- 2 Add 2<sup>1</sup>/<sub>4</sub> cups water to deglaze the pan, scraping up any bits stuck to the bottom of the pot. Add the chickpeas and salt, and stir to combine. There should be just enough water to cover the chickpeas, but add more if needed. Add the tomatoes on top of the chickpeas, but do not stir.
- 3 Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 30 minutes.
- 4 Once the cook time is complete, allow the pressure to release naturally. Carefully remove the lid. If desired, stir in the cayenne to taste. Stir in the lemon juice. Serve warm with rice, and garnish generously with fresh cilantro and a dollop of yogurt.

1 tsp coconut sugar
3 cups cooked and drained chickpeas
2 cups (1-in; 2.5cm) sweet potato chunks, skin on 3oz (85g) baby spinach (about 2 cups)
1 batch of Basic White Basmati Rice, or Perfect Quinoa, for serving
1 lime, cut into wedges, for serving
Fresh cilantro leaves, for serving

2 Add the curry paste, and sauté 1 minute more. Add 1 tablespoon water to deglaze the pan if there are any bits stuck to the bottom. Add the coconut milk, turmeric, coconut sugar, chickpeas, and sweet potatoes.

3 Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 2 minutes.

4 Once the cook time is complete, immediately quick release the pressure. Carefully remove the lid, and stir in the spinach to wilt.

5 Serve the curry warm on a bed of rice or quinoa with a lime wedge, and garnish generously with cilantro.

tip For a mild curry, start with 1 tablespoon curry paste. You can always add more to taste.

Don't cut your sweet potato pieces too small or let them cook too long; they can easily become too soft.

SIMPLE RED LENTIL DAL

Dal is a classic Indian side dish made with soft red lentils and aromatic spices. Use it as a side for your own Indian-inspired feast or as an easy main dish with vegetables and rice. While not traditional, I love wilting in a couple handfuls of arugula or spinach.

SERVES: 4

PREP: 3 MINUTES

PRESSURE: 1 MINUTE

SETTINGS: SAUTÉ (MEDIUM), PRESSURE
COOK (HIGH)

RELEASE: QUICK

---

1 tbsp extra virgin olive oil (optional)

1 small yellow onion, diced

2 cloves garlic, minced

1 tbsp freshly grated ginger

1 tbsp curry powder

1 tsp turmeric

1½ cups dried split red lentils, picked over and rinsed

1 (15fl oz; 440ml) can unsweetened light coconut milk

1 cup water

½ tsp salt, or to taste

2 cups packed arugula or spinach (optional)

Fresh cilantro, for garnish

Basic White Basmati Rice (optional), for serving

Steamed mixed veggies (optional), for serving

- 1 Select Sauté (Medium), and heat the oil, if using, in the inner pot until hot. (Otherwise, you can dry sauté in the hot pot or add a bit of water in the bottom of the pot.) Add the onion and sauté until softened and golden, 3 to 5 minutes. Press Cancel. Add a splash of water and deglaze the pot, scraping up any little pieces of onion that may be stuck to the bottom.
- 2 Add the garlic, ginger, curry powder, and turmeric, and stir to combine. Add the lentils, coconut milk, and 1 cup water. Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 1 minute.
- 3 Once the cook time is complete, immediately quick release the pressure. Carefully remove the lid. Season to taste with the salt. Stir in the arugula, if using. Garnish with fresh cilantro. Serve immediately as a side dish or as a main dish with rice and vegetables.

tip Red lentils cook much more quickly than green or brown. One minute at pressure may seem too little, but the lentils will be nearly done by the time the pot reaches pressure. Green lentils would need much longer.

MUSHROOM BOURGUIGNON

This French-inspired stew is made from big, chunky vegetables in a rich and flavorful sauce. Serve with pasta, soft polenta, mashed potatoes, or a chunk of crusty bread for sopping up the juices.

SERVES: 6

PREP: 10 MINUTES

PRESSURE: 7 MINUTES, PLUS 0 MINUTES

SETTINGS: SAUTÉ (MEDIUM), PRESSURE
COOK (HIGH)

RELEASE: NATURAL, QUICK

---

1 tsp extra virgin olive oil (optional)

1/2 yellow onion, diced

2 carrots, peeled and cut diagonally into 1-in (2.5cm) pieces

2 stalks celery, cut into 1/2-in (1.25cm) slices

4 cloves garlic, minced

1 cup red wine (or broth) (see tip)

2 cups vegetable broth

1 vegan beef-flavored bouillon cube

2 tbsp tomato paste
6 baby yellow potatoes, halved
1lb (450g) baby bella mushrooms, halved
5 sprigs fresh thyme
1 tbsp chopped fresh rosemary
2 bay leaves
1 tsp sea salt
1/4 tsp freshly ground black pepper
3/4 cup pearl onions, peeled (thawed if using frozen)
1 tbsp arrowroot starch or cornstarch
2 tbsp water
Pasta, polenta, mashed potatoes, or crusty French bread, for serving
1/2 cup flat-leaf parsley, for garnish

- 1 Select Sauté (Medium), and heat the oil, if using, in the inner pot until hot. (Otherwise, you can dry sauté in the hot pot or add a bit of water in the bottom of the pot.) Add the onion and sauté until softened and golden, 3 to 5 minutes. Add the carrots, celery, and garlic, and sauté 1 minute more. Add the wine to deglaze the pot, scraping up any bits stuck to the bottom. Simmer for 2 minutes to cook off some of the alcohol. Press Cancel.
- 2 Add the vegetable broth, bouillon cube, tomato paste, potatoes, mushrooms, thyme, rosemary, bay leaves, salt, and pepper, and stir to combine. Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 7 minutes.
- 3 Once the cook time is complete, allow the pressure to release naturally for 5 minutes, then quick release any remaining pressure.

- 4 Carefully remove the lid and stir in the pearl onions. Lock the lid again, and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 0 minutes.
  - 5 Once the cook time is complete, allow the pressure to release naturally for 2 minutes, then quick release any remaining pressure.
  - 6 In a small bowl, whisk together the arrowroot and 2 tablespoons water. Carefully remove the lid and stir in the arrowroot slurry. Select Sauté (High), and simmer for 1 minute to thicken slightly. Remove the thyme stems. Serve the stew immediately with cooked pasta, polenta, mashed potatoes, or in a bowl with crusty bread. Garnish with parsley.

tip Bourguignon is traditionally made with red wine, which adds rich flavor and color. Less alcohol cooks off in pressure cooking than with traditional methods, so it's best to only use wine when serving adults.*

KITCHARI

A one-pot dal and rice meal infused with aromatic spices, kitchari is an ancient Indian recipe with many spellings and variations. It's loved in Ayurvedic medicine for its easy digestibility and is thought to have detoxifying properties.

SERVES: 4

PREP: 10 MINUTES

PRESSURE: 6 MINUTES

TOTAL: 40 MINUTES

SETTINGS: SAUTÉ (MEDIUM), PRESSURE
COOK (HIGH)

RELEASE: NATURAL, QUICK

1 tbsp coconut oil (optional)

1 tbsp mustard seeds

½ tsp cumin seeds

2 cloves garlic, minced

1 tbsp freshly grated ginger

1/2 tsp ground cumin
1 tsp ground turmeric
1/2 tsp sea salt
1 cup dried yellow mung dal, rinsed
1/2 cup uncooked basmati rice, rinsed
4 cups vegetable broth, divided
3 cups baby spinach or kale, chopped
1 cup fresh cilantro leaves, for garnish
Red pepper flakes (optional), for garnish
6oz (170g) plain coconut milk yogurt (optional), for serving

- 1 Select Sauté (Medium), and heat the oil, if using, in the inner pot until hot. (Otherwise, you can dry sauté in the hot pot or add a bit of water in the bottom of the pot.) Add the mustard seeds and cumin seeds, and toast for 1 minute. Add the garlic, ginger, cumin, turmeric, and salt, and sauté 1 minute more. Add the dal, rice, and 3 cups broth, and stir to combine.
- 2 Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is in the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 6 minutes.
- 3 Once the cook time is complete, allow the pressure to release naturally for 7 minutes, then quick release any remaining pressure. Carefully remove the lid.
- 4 Stir in the spinach or kale and remaining 1 cup broth. Place the lid back on for 2 minutes to wilt the kale. Then stir in more broth as needed to thin to desired consistency.
- 5 Serve immediately, garnished with cilantro, red pepper flakes, and coconut milk yogurt, if using.

TEMPEH BOLOGNESE

This rich and hearty tomato sauce is loaded with veggies and plant-based protein. Tempeh Bolognese is delicious served over pasta, spaghetti squash, zucchini noodles, or polenta.

SERVES: 8

PREP: 10 MINUTES

PRESSURE: 10 MINUTES

TOTAL: 40 MINUTES

SETTINGS: SAUTÉ (MEDIUM), PRESSURE
COOK (HIGH)

RELEASE: NATURAL

---

1 tbsp extra virgin olive oil

1/2 yellow onion, chopped

1 carrot, diced

1 stalk celery, diced

3 cloves garlic, minced

8oz (225g) tempeh, finely chopped

1/2 cup red wine (or broth) (see tip)

1 (26oz; 735g) box finely chopped tomatoes

- 1 tbsp Italian Seasoning Blend
- 1 tsp fennel seeds
- 1 tsp sea salt
- 1 tbsp tamari
- 1 cup water
- 1 tbsp balsamic vinegar
- 1 tbsp pure maple syrup (optional)
- Freshly ground black pepper, to taste
- 1 bunch fresh basil or flat-leaf parsley, chopped

- 1 Select Sauté (Medium), and heat the oil in the inner pot. Add the onion, carrots, and celery, and sauté until softened, about 5 minutes. Add the garlic and tempeh, and sauté for 3 minutes more. Add the wine to deglaze the pan, scraping up all the browned bits stuck to the bottom of the pot—any pieces stuck may trigger the burn warning.
- 2 Add the tomatoes, Italian Seasoning Blend, fennel seeds, salt, tamari, and 1 cup water. Stir to combine. Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 10 minutes.
- 3 Once the cook time is complete, allow the pressure to release naturally. Carefully remove the lid. If you would like thicker sauce, simmer for a few minutes with Sauté (Medium).
- 4 Stir in the balsamic vinegar. Taste and add maple syrup if needed for sweetness and to cut the acidity, and add more salt and pepper to taste. Stir a handful of the fresh herbs into the sauce, and serve the remaining fresh herbs on the side for garnish. Serve immediately over your favorite pasta.

tip Tempeh comes vacuum-packed and ready to eat, but it can sometimes be slightly bitter. Some of that bitterness can be removed by steaming or simmering for 10 minutes on the stove. I don't find that step necessary in this recipe, but simmering the sauce on Sauté mode for a few minutes after cooking can help if you find it does have any bitterness.

RAMEN NOODLE BOWLS

A warming homemade broth infused with ginger and umami flavors is served in bowls loaded up with ramen noodles, tofu, and vegetables. Add any additional veggies you like to your ramen bowls. Sautéed bok choy, asparagus, edamame, and broccoli would all be delicious.

SERVES: 4

PREP: 5 MINUTES

PRESSURE: 5 MINUTES

TOTAL: 1 HOUR 5 MINUTES

SETTINGS: PRESSURE COOK (HIGH),
SAUTÉ (HIGH)

RELEASE: NATURAL

---

1 (14oz; 400g) block extra-firm organic tofu, drained and cubed

3 tbsp organic cornstarch

2 tbsp extra virgin olive oil

2 cups sliced mushrooms

6 cups fresh baby spinach

1 carrot, grated or thinly julienned

2 green onions, thinly sliced

Sriracha sauce, for serving

FOR THE BROTH:

2 large pieces kombu

4 cloves garlic, minced

2 tbsp freshly grated ginger

7 cups water

1 tbsp white miso paste

4 tbsp soy sauce (or tamari for gluten-free)

- 1 To make the broth, add the kombu, garlic, ginger, and 7 cups water to the inner pot. Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 5 minutes.
- 2 Once the cook time is complete, allow the pressure to release naturally. Carefully remove the lid and select Sauté (High). Simmer for 5 minutes to let the broth reduce slightly and concentrate the flavors. Press Cancel. Strain the broth through a fine-mesh sieve to remove the kombu and large pieces of garlic and ginger. Discard the solids and pour the broth back into the inner pot. Whisk in the miso paste and soy sauce.
- 3 Meanwhile, prepare the tofu, vegetables, and noodles. Toss the tofu with the cornstarch to coat. In a large skillet, heat the oil over medium-high heat. Fry the tofu until golden and crisp, turning to crisp all sides. Remove from the skillet and set aside. Then sauté the mushrooms until tender, about 7 minutes.
- 4 In a separate saucepan, cook the noodles according to the package instructions. (Do not use any seasonings that may have come with the noodles.) Drain.

5 Assemble the bowls by placing the spinach, carrots, and cooked noodles into large soup bowls. Pour the broth over, and garnish with green onion. Serve immediately with Sriracha on the side to add heat to individual bowls, to taste.

tip You can find organic ramen noodles at Asian grocery stores and natural foods stores.

Kombu is a type of seaweed that gives Dashi (a Japanese broth) and this ramen broth its wonderful umami. Found dried in Asian grocery stores, kombu is high in nutrients, especially iodine. You could also add a strip to the pot when cooking beans, as it helps them become more digestible.

CUBAN BLACK BEAN BOWLS

with Mango Salsa

These colorful bowls are filled with hearty, fiber-rich Cuban black beans and quinoa and topped with bright mango salsa, avocado, and greens.

SERVES: 6

PREP: 5 MINUTES

PRESSURE: 27 MINUTES

TOTAL: 1 HOUR

SETTINGS: SAUTÉ (MEDIUM), PRESSURE COOK (HIGH)

RELEASE: NATURAL, QUICK

---

FOR THE CUBAN BLACK BEANS:

1 tbsp extra virgin olive oil (optional)

1 yellow onion, diced

3 cloves garlic, minced

1 green bell pepper, deseeded and diced

2 cups dried black beans, rinsed

1 tbsp ground cumin
2 bay leaves
4 cups water
½ tsp sea salt

FOR THE MANGO SALSA:

1 medium mango, peeled and diced
1 shallot, finely diced
Juice of 1 lime
1 clove garlic, minced
¼ cup chopped fresh cilantro

FOR SERVING:

1 batch of Perfect Quinoa
3oz (85g) greens (such as arugula or chopped romaine)
1 avocado, sliced
Fresh cilantro
1 lime, cut into wedges

- 1 Select Sauté (Medium), and heat the oil, if using, in the inner pot until hot. (Otherwise, you can dry sauté in the hot pot or add a bit of water in the bottom of the pot.) Add the onion and sauté until softened and golden, 3 to 5 minutes. Add the garlic and bell pepper and sauté 1 minute more.
- 2 Add the beans, cumin, bay leaves, and 4 cups water. Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 27 minutes.
- 3 Once the cook time is complete, allow the pressure to release naturally for 15 minutes, then quick release any remaining pressure. Carefully remove the lid and check that the beans are tender. Remove the bay leaves. Season to taste with salt.

4 To make the mango salsa, in a medium bowl, combine all ingredients.

5 To assemble each bowl, place about  $\frac{2}{3}$  cup quinoa into the bowl and top with beans, salsa, greens, and avocado. Garnish with fresh cilantro and serve with lime wedges.

ITALIAN SAUSAGE, PEPPERS, AND ONIONS

This is one of my husband’s favorite dinners from his omnivorous days, and it’s easy to make free of animal products with plant-based “sausages.” It’s filled with Italian flavor: fresh and dried herbs, onions, peppers, and a tomato base. Serve as sandwiches inside rolls and alongside spaghetti or atop creamy polenta.

SERVES: 4

PREP: 5 MINUTES

PRESSURE: 4 MINUTES

SETTINGS: SAUTÉ (MEDIUM), PRESSURE
COOK (HIGH)

RELEASE: QUICK

---

1 tbsp extra virgin olive oil

4 vegan Italian sausages (such as Beyond Meat or Field Roast) (soy-free and gluten-free, if needed)

1 yellow onion, halved and sliced

1/4 cup dry white wine (such as Pinot Grigio) (or broth) (see tip)

1/4 cup water

1 red bell pepper, deseeded and cut into 1/4-in (1/2cm) strips

1 yellow bell pepper, deseeded and cut into 1/4-in (1/2cm) strips

1 orange bell pepper, deseeded and cut into 1/4-in (1/2cm) strips

1 1/2 tbsp Italian Seasoning Blend

1 (15oz; 420g) can crushed tomatoes

1 tsp balsamic vinegar

Sea salt, to taste

Freshly ground black pepper, to taste

1 cup fresh basil leaves, for garnish

1 Select Sauté (Medium), and heat the oil in the inner pot until very hot. Add the sausages and brown on all sides, turning occasionally with tongs. When the sausages are completely cooked through according to the package instructions, remove and set on a plate. To keep warm, tent with foil or place in the oven heated to 200°F (95°C).

2 Add the sliced onion to the inner pot. Sauté until softened and golden, 3 to 5 minutes. Add the wine to deglaze the pan, scraping up any browned bits stuck to the bottom. Press Cancel.

3 Without stirring, add 1/4 cup water, bell peppers, Italian Seasoning Blend, and tomatoes, layering in that order. Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 4 minutes.

- 4 Once the cook time is complete, immediately quick release the pressure and carefully remove the lid. If the peppers aren't soft enough yet, turn the pot to Sauté (High), and cook until softened. If you'd like to thicken up the sauce, simmer for a couple of minutes more.
- 5 Stir in the balsamic vinegar and season to taste with salt and pepper. Serve the peppers and onions immediately, topped with the sausages. Garnish with fresh basil.

BUTTERNUT SQUASH MAC AND CHEEZE

Coated in a creamy, savory butternut squash sauce and topped with crunchy, buttery bread crumbs, this dreamy mac and “cheese” is a tasty family main dish.

SERVES: 8

PREP: 10 MINUTES

PRESSURE: 6 MINUTES

TOTAL: 45 MINUTES

SETTINGS: PRESSURE COOK (HIGH)

RELEASE: NATURAL, QUICK

---

1/2 cup raw cashews

5 cups 1-in (2.5cm) cubed butternut squash (about 1 small squash)

1 tsp sea salt

1 cup vegetable broth

1lb (450g) uncooked pasta, such as elbow, penne, or cavatappi

1 small yellow onion, roughly chopped

1/2 cup nutritional yeast (such as Bragg or Trader Joe's)

1 tsp garlic powder

1½ tsp dry mustard

¼ tsp paprika

FOR THE PANKO TOPPING:

1 cup panko bread crumbs

3 tbsp melted vegan butter

Sea salt, to taste

Freshly ground black pepper, to taste

- 1 In the inner pot, stir to combine the cashews, squash, salt, and broth. Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 6 minutes.
- 2 Meanwhile, cook the pasta on the stove according to the package instructions. Drain when the pasta is al dente and place in a 9 x 13-inch (23 x 33cm) casserole dish.
- 3 Once the pressure cook time is complete, allow the pressure to release naturally for 12 minutes, then quick release any remaining pressure. Carefully remove the lid and make sure the squash is very tender. If not yet tender, pressure cook for 2 minutes more.
- 4 Carefully transfer the cashew and squash mixture to a blender, working in batches as needed. Add the onion, nutritional yeast, garlic powder, mustard, paprika, and a pinch of pepper. Place the lid on the blender with the center hole open to allow steam to escape. Cover with a towel, and blend until very smooth and creamy. You may need to use a tamper to get the mixture moving at first. Turn off the blender and add more salt and pepper to taste.
- 5 Pour the sauce over the pasta in the casserole dish, and toss to coat. Preheat the broiler.

6 To make the panko topping, in a small bowl, stir together the panko and melted butter. Season with salt and pepper. Sprinkle over the pasta. Transfer the casserole dish to the oven, and broil until the topping is golden brown, 2 to 3 minutes, watching closely to prevent burning. Serve immediately.

VEGETABLE LASAGNA

This incredible lasagna is packed with flavor from the homemade, creamy, dairy-free ricotta and the nutritious veggies. No one can tell this comfort-food classic is vegan—it tastes just like the original, but better!

SERVES: 6

PREP: 20 MINUTES

TOTAL: 1 HOUR 20 MINUTES

SETTINGS: PRESSURE COOK (HIGH)

RELEASE: NATURAL, QUICK

3 cups homemade or store-bought marinara sauce

1 package no-boil lasagna noodles

1 batch Almond Ricotta

3 cups baby spinach

1 zucchini, cut crosswise into thin rounds

1 (12oz; 340g) jar roasted red peppers, drained, patted dry, and sliced

1 cup water

1/4 cup shredded vegan Parmesan cheese (such as Follow Your Heart)(optional)

1 cup fresh basil, for garnish

- 1 Coat the bottom of a 7-inch (17.5cm) springform pan with a thin layer of marinara sauce. Cover the sauce with lasagna noodle pieces, breaking as needed to fit them in like a puzzle. Spread 1/3 of the ricotta over the noodles with the back of a spoon. Top the ricotta with a layer of spinach leaves, a layer of zucchini rounds, and a layer of red pepper slices. Top the veggies with a layer of sauce. Top the sauce with another layer of broken noodles, ricotta, and veggies continuing in this pattern until there are 3 layers of ricotta and veggies and ending with a fourth layer of noodles. Cover the top layer of noodles with a final layer of sauce.
- 2 Fit the inner pot with the trivet or steam rack, and add 1 cup water. Cover the springform pan with foil. Place the pan on the trivet. Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 24 minutes.
- 3 Once the cook time is complete, allow the pressure to release naturally for 10 minutes, then quick release any remaining pressure. Carefully remove the lid and lift the pan out of the pot. Remove the foil. Top the lasagna with Parmesan, if using, and place under the broiler for 5 minutes, or until melted.
- 4 Let the lasagna rest for 15 minutes before removing the sides of the pan. Garnish with fresh basil, then serve in pie-shaped slices.

BROCCOLI ALFREDO GNOCCHI

This ultra creamy and flavorful gnocchi makes an easy and delicious one-pot weeknight meal that's ready in under 30 minutes.

SERVES: 4

PREP: 5 MINUTES, PLUS OVERNIGHT
FOR SOAKING

TOTAL: 15 MINUTES

SETTINGS: STEAM (HIGH)

RELEASE: QUICK

---

1 cup water

1 (17oz; 480g) package gluten-free gnocchi

6oz (170g) broccoli florets (about 2 cups)

1/4 cup chopped flat-leaf parsley, for garnish

FOR THE ALFREDO SAUCE:

1 cup raw cashews, soaked overnight (see tip)

2 cloves garlic

1 tbsp fresh lemon juice

2 tbsp nutritional yeast (such as Bragg or Trader Joe's)

½ tsp dried rosemary

1 tsp sea salt

Pinch of freshly ground black pepper

Pinch of nutmeg

1 cup water

- 1 To make the alfredo sauce, drain the soaked cashews and add to a blender. Add the garlic, lemon juice, nutritional yeast, rosemary, salt, pepper, and nutmeg. Add ½ cup water. Blend, adding the remaining ½ cup water through the hole in the lid as needed until smooth and creamy.
- 2 Meanwhile, steam the gnocchi and broccoli. Fit the inner pot with a steamer basket, and add 1 cup water. Add the gnocchi and broccoli to the basket. Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Steam (High), and set the cook time for 1 minute.
- 3 Once the cook time is complete, immediately quick release the pressure. Select Warm. Carefully remove the lid and the steamer basket. Drain the water from the inner pot. Return the inner pot to the Instant Pot.
- 4 Add half of the alfredo sauce to the inner pot, and top with the steamed gnocchi and broccoli. Add more sauce to taste—I use about ¾ of the sauce and save the remainder for another use. Stir to coat, adding water to thin to the desired consistency. Serve immediately garnished with fresh parsley.

tip Raw cashews need to be soft and hydrated before blending. Soak overnight or for at least 6 hours at room temperature, or for at least 2 hours with hot water poured over. It's also important to use raw cashews rather than roasted to avoid a nutty flavor.

ONE POT PASTA

with Cherry Tomatoes and Basil

This simple one-pot pasta is filled with juicy, sweet cherry tomatoes, fresh basil, and salty capers.

SERVES: 6

PREP: 2 MINUTES

PRESSURE: 5 MINUTES

SETTINGS: SAUTÉ (MEDIUM), PRESSURE
COOK (LOW)

RELEASE: QUICK

---

- 1 tbsp extra virgin olive oil (optional), plus more to serve
- 1 small yellow onion, diced
- 4 cloves garlic, sliced
- 1/4 tsp red pepper flakes
- 1lb (450g) uncooked short pasta (such as penne, fusilli, or bowtie)
- 1 tsp sea salt
- Water, to cover
- 1pt (551ml) cherry tomatoes

1 bunch fresh basil, torn or sliced

1/4 cup drained capers

1 cup shredded vegan Parmesan cheese (such as Follow Your Heart)

Freshly ground black pepper, to taste

- 1 Select Sauté (Medium), and heat the oil, if using, in the inner pot until hot. (Otherwise, you can dry sauté in the hot pot or add a bit of water in the bottom of the pot.) Add the onion and sauté until softened and golden, 3 to 5 minutes. Add the garlic and pepper and sauté 1 minute more. Press Cancel.
- 2 Add the pasta to the inner pot. Add the salt and water until just covered, no more than 1/4 inch (0.5cm) above the pasta. Add the tomatoes on top without stirring.
- 3 Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (Low), and set the cook time for half of the cook time on the pasta package, rounding down. For example, if the pasta package calls for 10 to 12 minutes on the stove, set the cook time for 5 minutes.
- 4 Once the cook time is complete, immediately quick release the pressure and carefully remove the lid. Add the fresh basil and capers, and stir to combine. Drizzle with a little olive oil, if desired. Serve immediately with Parmesan and salt and pepper, to taste.

tip If you're craving more protein, you can stir in a cup of cooked chickpeas or cannellini beans and top with a dollop of Almond Ricotta, or serve with grilled vegan Italian sausage. If you love greens, wilt in a few handfuls of arugula or spinach at the end.

RISOTTO

with Roasted Vegetables

Creamy risotto topped with colorful roasted vegetables makes a comforting and beautiful dinner that's easy enough for busy weeknights but elegant enough for special occasions.

SERVES: 4

PREP: 10 MINUTES

PRESSURE: 5 MINUTES

TOTAL: 35 MINUTES

SETTINGS: SAUTÉ (MEDIUM), PRESSURE
COOK (HIGH)

FOR THE ROASTED VEGETABLES:

1 small butternut squash, peeled and cut into ½-in (1.25cm) cubes

8–10oz (225–285g) baby Bella mushrooms, cleaned and halved

1lb (450g) Brussels sprouts, halved

3 tbsp avocado oil or extra virgin olive oil

Sea salt, to taste

Freshly ground black pepper, to taste

FOR THE RISOTTO:

1 tbsp extra virgin olive oil (optional)

1 yellow onion, diced

3 cloves garlic, minced

1½ cups dry Arborio rice

4 cups vegetable broth, plus more as needed to thin

3 sprigs fresh thyme, plus more for garnish

½ cup shredded vegan Parmesan cheese (such as Follow Your Heart)

Salt, to taste (recommended truffle salt)

Freshly ground black pepper, to taste

2 cups microgreens or arugula

½ cup pomegranate arils (optional), for garnish

1 To roast the vegetables, preheat the oven to 425°F (220°C). Line a large rimmed baking sheet with parchment paper. Place the squash, mushrooms, and Brussels sprouts on the sheet, and drizzle with the oil. Toss to coat evenly. Season with salt and pepper. Transfer to the oven and roast the vegetables until tender and browned, about 25 minutes. The butternut squash may take longer than the other vegetables to cook; remove the tender veggies and return the squash to the oven until tender and browned, about 10 minutes more.

2 Meanwhile, make the risotto. Select Sauté (Medium), and heat the oil, if using, in the inner pot until hot. (Otherwise, you can dry sauté in the hot pot or add a bit of water in the bottom of the pot.) Add the onion and sauté until softened and golden, 3 to 5 minutes. Add the garlic and sauté 1 minute more. Add the rice and toast 1 to 2 minutes.

- 3 Add the broth and thyme. Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 5 minutes.
- 4 Once the cook time is complete, immediately quick release the pressure and carefully remove the lid. Stir in the Parmesan and season to taste with salt and pepper. If the risotto is too thick, stir in more broth to thin.
- 5 Serve the risotto on a bed of greens, topped with the roasted vegetables. Garnish with thyme and pomegranate arils, if using.

tip Feel free to use whatever veggies you have on hand or are in season. While Brussels sprouts and squash are wonderful during colder months; carrots, zucchini, peas, and artichokes are nice in warmer months. Just remember—veggies don't all cook in the same amount of time, so you may need to adjust.

BUTTERNUT SQUASH SOUP

Creamy and comforting, butternut squash soup has just enough sweetness and a tiny kick of spice, with earthy undertones like sage and nutmeg. This soup is easy enough for a busy weeknight but beautiful enough for your holiday table.

SERVES: 6

PREP: 5 MINUTES

PRESSURE: 6 MINUTES

SETTINGS: SAUTÉ (MEDIUM), PRESSURE
COOK (HIGH)

RELEASE: NATURAL, QUICK

---

1 tbsp extra virgin olive oil (optional)

1 yellow onion, chopped

4 cloves garlic, minced

1 medium butternut squash, peeled and cubed (about 6 cups)

1 carrot, roughly chopped

1 sweet apple (such as Fuji or Gala) peeled, cored, and roughly chopped

7 fresh sage leaves
1½ cups vegetable broth
1 cup canned, unsweetened coconut milk
1 tsp sea salt, plus more to taste
½ tsp ground nutmeg
Pinch of cayenne pepper

OPTIONAL TOPPINGS:

½ cup dairy-free plain yogurt
¼ cup toasted pepitas
½ cup microgreens
3 tbsp pomegranate arils

- 1 Select Sauté (Medium), and heat the oil, if using, in the inner pot until hot. (Otherwise, you can dry sauté in the hot pot or add a bit of water in the bottom of the pot.) Add the onion and sauté until softened and golden, 3 to 5 minutes. Add the garlic and sauté 1 minute more.
- 2 Add the butternut squash, carrot, apple, sage, broth, coconut milk, salt, nutmeg, and cayenne pepper. Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 6 minutes.
- 3 Once the cook time is complete, allow the pressure to release naturally for 10 minutes, then quick release any remaining pressure. Press Cancel. Carefully remove the lid.
- 4 Use an immersion blender to blend the soup. Season to taste with nutmeg, additional salt, and more cayenne for heat. For a thicker soup, simmer on Sauté (Medium) for a few minutes.

5 Serve warm, garnished with plain yogurt (or more coconut milk), pepitas, microgreens, and a few pomegranate arils.

tip If you're short on time, feel free to use precut butternut squash. You'll need 24 ounces (680g).

CURRIED PUMPKIN RED LENTIL SOUP

Subtle pumpkin and coconut flavors spiced up with curry powder create a warming soup for autumn. Red lentils offer fiber to make it more filling.

SERVES: 8

PREP: 5 MINUTES

PRESSURE: 5 MINUTES

SETTINGS: SAUTÉ (HIGH), PRESSURE
COOK (HIGH)

RELEASE: NATURAL, QUICK

- 1 tsp coconut oil (optional)
  - 1 small yellow onion, chopped
  - 1 small apple, finely diced
  - 4 cups vegetable broth
  - 1 (15oz; 420g) can pumpkin purée
  - 1 tbsp curry powder, plus more to taste
  - ¼ tsp ground cinnamon
  - ¼ tsp nutmeg
  - 1½ cups dry red lentils, rinsed

1 (15oz; 420g) can unsweetened light coconut milk

Sea salt, to taste

Freshly ground black pepper, to taste

1 small bunch fresh cilantro, for garnish

1/4 cup pepitas, for garnish

1 lime, cut into wedges

Dairy-free plain yogurt or cashew cream (optional), for garnish

- 1 Select Sauté (High), and heat the oil, if using, in the inner pot until hot. (Otherwise, you can dry sauté in the hot pot or add a bit of water in the bottom of the pot.) Add the onion and sauté until softened and golden, 3 to 5 minutes. Add the apple, broth, pumpkin, curry powder, cinnamon, nutmeg, lentils, and coconut milk. Stir to combine.
- 2 Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 5 minutes.
- 3 Once the cook time is complete, allow the pressure to release naturally for 5 minutes, then quick release any remaining pressure. Carefully remove the lid and stir the soup. Season to taste with additional curry powder, salt, and pepper. Serve immediately topped with cilantro, pepitas, a squeeze of lime juice, and yogurt.

tip This soup will thicken as it cools, but if you'd like it thicker right away, select Sauté (Medium) after the pressure cooking is complete and simmer for 3 to 5 minutes.

PEANUT TOFU BOWLS

Creamy coconut peanut sauce and tofu are cooked along with rice using the pot-in-pot method. These colorful bowls are loaded up with fresh, raw vegetables, peanuts, sesame seeds, and cilantro for a satisfying and nourishing meal.

SERVES: 4

PREP: 10 MINUTES

PRESSURE: 3 MINUTES

TOTAL: 35 MINUTES

SETTINGS: SAUTÉ (MEDIUM), PRESSURE
COOK (HIGH)

RELEASE: NATURAL, QUICK

14oz (400g) extra-firm tofu

1 tbsp coconut oil

3 cloves garlic, minced

1 tbsp freshly minced ginger

1 cup plus 1 tbsp water, divided

1 (13fl oz; 385ml) can coconut milk
1 tbsp pure maple syrup, plus more for serving
3 tbsp tamari, plus more for serving
½ tsp Sriracha sauce, plus more for serving
1 cup long-grain white rice, rinsed and drained
Pinch of sea salt
½ cup peanut butter, plus more for serving

FOR TOPPING:

2 Persian cucumbers, sliced
1 avocado, sliced
2 cups shredded purple cabbage
1 cup shredded carrots, or ribbons
1½oz (40g) microgreens (about 1 cup)
Small bunch fresh cilantro
½ cup peanuts
¼ cup toasted sesame seeds
1 lime, cut into wedges

- 1 Drain the tofu and press with paper towels to remove some of the water. Cut into 1-inch (2.5cm) cubes. Select Sauté (Medium), and heat the coconut oil until hot. Add the tofu and brown on all sides, turning occasionally.
- 2 Add the garlic and ginger, and sauté for 1 minute, taking care not to let it burn. Add 1 tablespoon water to deglaze the pan, scraping up any browned bits stuck to the bottom. Add the coconut milk, maple syrup, tamari, and Sriracha sauce.
- 3 Place the trivet in the inner pot over the tofu mixture. In an oven-safe bowl or baking dish, add the rice, remaining 1 cup water, and salt. Stir to combine, and place the bowl on the trivet.

- 4 Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 3 minutes.
- 5 Once the cook time is complete, allow the pressure to release naturally for 15 minutes, then quick release any remaining pressure. Using potholders, carefully remove the lid, the dish of rice, and the trivet. Stir the peanut butter into the tofu mixture. To thicken the sauce, you can simmer on Sauté mode for 2 minutes, stirring often. Season the sauce to taste with more Sriracha, syrup, tamari, or peanut butter.
- 6 Spoon the rice into bowls and top with the peanut sauce and tofu. Arrange the rest of the toppings in the bowls and enjoy immediately.

tip The peanut butter must be stirred in after pressure cooking so that it does not burn on the bottom.*

FOR SOAKING

PRESSURE: 6 MINUTES

SETTINGS: SAUTÉ (MEDIUM), PRESSURE
COOK (HIGH)

RELEASE: NATURAL, QUICK

---

1 tbsp extra virgin olive oil (optional)

1 yellow onion, chopped

4 cloves garlic, minced

2 carrots, diced

2 stalks celery, diced

3 cups vegetable broth
1 tbsp chopped fresh oregano
1 tsp sea salt
1½ cups fresh or canned chopped tomatoes with their juices
1½ cups dry black-eyed peas, soaked overnight or quick soaked (see tip)
⅛ cup fresh lemon juice
3 cups chopped, de-stemmed kale leaves
Freshly ground black pepper, to taste

- 1 Select Sauté (Medium), and heat the oil, if using, in the inner pot until hot. (Otherwise, you can dry sauté in the hot pot or add a bit of water in the bottom of the pot.) Add the onion and sauté until softened and golden, 3 to 5 minutes. Add the garlic, carrots, and celery, and sauté 1 minute more.
- 2 Add the broth to deglaze the pan, scraping up any bits that may be stuck to the bottom of the pot. Add the oregano, salt, tomatoes, and soaked black-eyed peas, and stir to combine.
- 3 Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 6 minutes.
- 4 Once the cook time is complete, allow the pressure to release naturally for 5 minutes, then quick release any remaining pressure. Carefully remove the lid. Stir in the lemon juice and kale until the kale is wilted. Season to taste with pepper. Serve immediately.

ETHIOPIAN CABBAGE STEW

This comforting Ethiopian-inspired vegetable stew with aromatic spices is quick, easy, and inexpensive. Serve alone, or alongside Ethiopian red lentils and injera (Ethiopian bread) for an unforgettable meal.

SERVES: 4

PREP: 5 MINUTES

PRESSURE: 3 MINUTES

SETTINGS: SAUTÉ (MEDIUM), PRESSURE
COOK (HIGH)

RELEASE: QUICK

---

2 tbsp extra virgin olive oil (optional)

1 small yellow onion, sliced

1 tsp freshly grated ginger

1/2 tsp ground turmeric

1/4 tsp fenugreek seeds

1/3 cup vegetable broth

3 large carrots, cut into 3/4-in (2cm) slices (about 2 cups)

1lb (450g) gold potatoes, diced into 1-in (2.5cm) cubes (2–3 cups)

½ head cabbage, shredded

1 tsp sea salt

½ tsp freshly ground black pepper

- 1 Select Sauté (Medium), and heat the oil, if using, in the inner pot until hot. (Otherwise, you can dry sauté in the hot pot or add a bit of water in the bottom of the pot.) Add the onion and sauté until softened and golden, 3 to 5 minutes. Add the ginger, turmeric, and fenugreek, and sauté 1 minute more. Add the vegetable broth to deglaze the pan, scraping up any bits that may be stuck to the bottom. Add the carrots, potatoes, cabbage, salt, and pepper.
- 2 Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 3 minutes.
- 3 Once the cook time is complete, immediately quick release the pressure. Carefully remove the lid and make sure the vegetables are tender. If not, lock the lid and pressure cook for 1 minute more.
- 4 Stir and adjust any seasonings to taste. Serve immediately.

TOMATO BASIL SOUP

The tastiest tomato soup is made with fresh, ripe tomatoes roasted with onions and garlic. Bell pepper adds depth of flavor and creaminess, while basil adds bright freshness. Serve this simple soup with avocado toast or a vegan grilled cheese for a comforting family dinner.

SERVES: 6

PREP: 10 MINUTES

PRESSURE: 2 MINUTES

TOTAL: 40 MINUTES

SETTINGS: PRESSURE COOK (HIGH)

RELEASE: NATURAL, QUICK

---

1 yellow onion, roughly chopped

5 cloves garlic

1 red bell pepper, deseeded and roughly chopped

8 cups Roma tomatoes, halved and deseeded

1 tbsp extra virgin olive oil

1 tsp sea salt, plus more to taste

Freshly ground black pepper, to taste

2 cups vegetable broth

1 cup loosely packed fresh basil leaves, plus more to garnish

- 1 Preheat the oven to 450°F (230°C). Line a large baking sheet with parchment paper. Place the onion, garlic, bell pepper, and tomato halves on the parchment. Drizzle with olive oil and season with salt and pepper. Roast for about 20 minutes, or until all the ingredients are caramelized. Occasionally check and turn any pieces that are turning too brown.
- 2 Add the broth and roasted vegetables to the inner pot. Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 2 minutes.
- 3 Once the cook time is complete, allow the pressure to release naturally for 5 minutes, then quick release any remaining pressure.
- 4 Carefully remove the lid and transfer the tomato mixture and basil to a blender, working in batches as needed. Place the lid on the blender with the center hole open to allow steam to escape. Cover with a towel. Carefully and slowly blend the tomato mixture until smooth.
- 5 Pour the mixture back into the inner pot and set to Warm until ready to serve. Season with more salt and pepper to taste, and garnish with more fresh basil.

tip Taking the extra time to roast the onions, garlic, tomatoes, and peppers creates the best flavor. If you're in a hurry, you can brown the veggies in olive oil in the inner pot on Sauté (Medium).

3 carrots, peeled and diced

3 celery stalks, diced

16oz (450g) dry split peas

6 cups vegetable broth

1 tsp sea salt, plus more to taste

1/4 tsp freshly ground black pepper, plus more to taste

4 sprigs fresh thyme, or 1/2 tsp dried thyme

2 bay leaves

½ cup chopped flat-leaf parsley, to garnish

- 1 Select Sauté (Medium), and heat the oil, if using, in the inner pot until hot. (Otherwise, you can dry sauté in the hot pot or add a bit of water in the bottom of the pot.) Add the onion, carrots, and celery, and sauté until the onion is softened and golden, 3 to 5 minutes. Press Cancel.
- 2 Meanwhile, rinse the peas several times, picking out any debris. Add the cleaned peas, broth, salt, pepper, thyme, and bay leaves. Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 15 minutes.
- 3 Once the cook time is complete, allow the pressure to release naturally for 5 minutes, then quick release any remaining pressure. Carefully remove the lid.
- 4 Remove the thyme stems and bay leaves. Season to taste with more salt and pepper. Serve immediately, garnished with fresh parsley.

  - 2 cups chopped carrots ( $\frac{1}{2}$ -in; 1.25cm pieces)
  - 2 cups chopped celery ( $\frac{1}{2}$ -in; 1.25cm pieces)

2½ cups diced butternut squash (½-in; 1.25cm pieces)
1 (26oz; 735g) box crushed or diced tomatoes
4 cups vegetable broth
3½ cups cooked white beans, drained and rinsed
1 cup dry shell pasta (or farfalle)
1 tbsp chopped fresh thyme leaves
2 sprigs fresh rosemary, leaves chopped
1 tbsp dried oregano
5oz (140g) baby spinach (about 4 cups)
Sea salt, to taste
Freshly ground black pepper, to taste
Chopped flat-leaf parsley, for garnish
½ cup vegan pesto (store-bought or homemade), for garnish

- 1 Select Sauté (Medium), and heat the oil, if using, in the inner pot until hot. (Otherwise, you can dry sauté in the hot pot or add a bit of water in the bottom of the pot.) Add the onion, garlic, carrots, celery, and butternut squash. Sauté until softened and golden, 3 to 5 minutes.
- 2 Add the tomatoes, broth, beans, pasta, thyme, rosemary, and oregano, and stir to combine. Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 4 minutes.
- 3 Once the cook time is complete, immediately quick release the pressure. Carefully remove the lid and stir in the spinach to wilt. Season to taste with salt and pepper. Serve immediately, garnished with fresh parsley and a dollop of pesto.

  - 4 cloves garlic, minced
  - 12oz (340g) broccoli florets (about 6 cups)
  - 5 cups vegetable broth
  - 1 tsp sea salt

1/4 tsp freshly ground black pepper

1/2 cup nutritional yeast (such as Bragg's or Trader Joe's), or to taste

1/3 cup flat-leaf parsley, plus more for garnish

1 batch Simple Cashew Cream

- 1 Select Sauté (Medium), and heat the oil, if using, in the inner pot until hot. (Otherwise, you can dry sauté in the hot pot or add a bit of water in the bottom of the pot.) Add the onion and celery and sauté until softened and golden, 3 to 5 minutes. Press Cancel.
- 2 Add the garlic, broccoli, broth, salt, and pepper. Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 2 minutes.
- 3 Once the cook time is complete, immediately quick release the pressure and carefully remove the lid. Let the soup cool slightly so it's no longer scalding hot and carefully transfer to a blender, or use an immersion blender. Add the nutritional yeast, parsley, and 1/2 cup cashew cream. If using a stand blender, remove the center of the lid for ventilation and cover the hole with a towel.
- 4 Blend until smooth. Season to taste with additional salt, pepper, and nutritional yeast, if desired. Serve immediately, garnished with a drizzle of additional cashew cream and fresh parsley.

CARROT GINGER SOUP

This easy soup recipe is infused with ginger and turmeric and made extra creamy with coconut milk. Flavorful carrot ginger soup is my go-to cold-busting recipe.

SERVES: 4

PREP: 5 MINUTES

PRESSURE: 5 MINUTES

TOTAL: 20 MINUTES

SETTINGS: PRESSURE COOK (HIGH)

RELEASE: QUICK

- 1 1/2 lb (680g) carrots, peeled and cut into 1-in (2.5cm) chunks
  - 1 tbsp freshly grated ginger
  - 1 tsp ground turmeric
  - 1 (13fl oz; 385ml) can light coconut milk
  - 2-4 cups vegetable broth
  - 1/4 tsp sea salt

1/8 tsp freshly ground black pepper

1 cup microgreens (optional), to serve

6oz (170g) plain vegan yogurt (optional), to serve

- 1 Add the carrots, ginger, turmeric, coconut milk, 2 cups vegetable broth, salt, and pepper to the inner pot. Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 5 minutes.
- 2 Once the cook time is complete, immediately quick release the pressure and carefully remove the lid. Let the soup cool slightly so it's no longer scalding hot and carefully transfer to a blender, working in batches as needed, or use an immersion blender. If using a stand blender, remove the center of the lid for ventilation and cover the hole with a towel.
- 3 Blend on low speed until the soup is puréed. Add more broth as needed to thin. Add more salt, pepper, and grated ginger to taste.
- 4 Pour directly from the blender into bowls, or place back into the pot on Warm mode. Garnish with microgreens and more coconut milk or plain yogurt, if desired.

CHICKPEA VEGETABLE SOUP

This cozy soup tastes just like chicken soup, but it is completely meat-free. It's a family favorite during cold and flu season.

SERVES: 6

PREP: 10 MINUTES

PRESSURE: 4 MINUTES

TOTAL: 30 MINUTES

SETTINGS: SAUTÉ (MEDIUM), PRESSURE
COOK (HIGH)

RELEASE: NATURAL, QUICK

---

1 tbsp extra virgin olive oil (optional)

1 yellow onion, chopped

4 carrots, diced or sliced

3 celery stalks, diced

1 1/4 cups diced potatoes (such as baby yellow, red, and purple potatoes)

4 cloves garlic, minced

1 tsp ground thyme

4 cups water (or your favorite broth)

1-2 tbsp vegetarian vegetable bouillon (Such as Better Than Bouillon No Chicken Base) (only if using water instead of broth)

3 cups cooked chickpeas, drained and rinsed

1/3 cup chopped flat-leaf parsley

- 1 Select Sauté (Medium), and heat the oil, if using, in the inner pot until hot. (Otherwise, you can dry sauté in the hot pot or add a bit of water in the bottom of the pot.) Add the onion and sauté until softened and golden, 3 to 5 minutes. Add the carrots, celery, potatoes, garlic, and thyme, and sauté 1 minute more.
- 2 Add 4 cups water and bouillon (or just the broth, if using instead). Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 4 minutes.
- 3 Once the cook time is complete, allow the pressure to release naturally for 10 minutes, then quick release any remaining pressure.
- 4 Carefully remove the lid. Stir in the chickpeas and parsley, and place the lid back on to warm for a few minutes. Serve warm.

- 1 tsp extra virgin olive oil (optional)
- 1 medium yellow onion, diced
- 3 carrots, peeled and chopped
- 3 celery stalks, chopped
- 3 cloves garlic, minced
- 1 Yukon Gold potato, cut into  $\frac{3}{4}$ -in (2cm) cubes
- 2 tsp herbes de Provence (or see tip to use fresh herbs)
- 1 (14oz; 400g) can or box diced tomatoes, undrained
- 6 cups vegetable broth
- 2 cups dry green lentils, picked over and rinsed

3 cups sliced kale or baby spinach
1 tsp sea salt, to taste
Freshly ground black pepper, to taste

- 1 Select Sauté (Medium), and heat the oil, if using, in the inner pot until hot. (Otherwise, you can dry sauté in the hot pot or add a bit of water in the bottom of the pot.) Add the onion and sauté until softened and golden, 3 to 5 minutes. Add the carrots, celery, garlic, potatoes, and herbs, and sauté 1 minute more. Press Cancel.

SALADS & SIDES

BEET SALAD

with Orange Vinaigrette

Steamed beets, perfect for prepping on the weekend and enjoying all week, are one of my favorites to make in the Instant Pot—they're done so much faster than roasting in the oven. Use them to make this elegant beet and citrus salad.

SERVES: 6

PREP: 10 MINUTES

PRESSURE: 20 MINUTES

TOTAL: 45 MINUTES

SETTINGS: PRESSURE COOK (HIGH)

RELEASE: QUICK

---

1 cup water

4 medium beets

5oz (140g) arugula (about 4 cups)

2 navel oranges, peeled and sliced

½ cup raw walnuts

1/4 cup crumbled vegan goat-style cheese (such as Treeline, Miyoko's, or Kite Hill)

FOR THE DRESSING:

1 small shallot, cut into large chunks

1 clove garlic, minced

1/3 cup freshly squeezed orange juice

Zest of 1 orange

2 tbsp balsamic vinegar or red wine vinegar

1/4 tsp sea salt

1/4 tsp freshly ground black pepper

1/2 tsp Dijon mustard

Squeeze of fresh lemon

1 tbsp agave syrup

1/4 cup extra virgin olive oil

1 Fit the inner pot with the trivet, steam rack, or a steamer basket, and add 1 cup water. Place the beets on the trivet. Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 15 to 20 minutes, depending on the size of the beets.

2 Once the cook time is complete, immediately quick release the pressure. Carefully remove the lid and make sure the beets are fork-tender. If not, lock the lid and pressure cook for 3 to 5 minutes more.

3 Allow the beets to cool enough to handle. Slip the skins off under cool running water and discard. Cut the beets into rounds or wedges.

4 Meanwhile, make the dressing. Place all ingredients except the olive oil in a blender. Blend until the shallot is very finely chopped. Slowly blend in the olive oil.

5 In a large salad bowl, toss the arugula with the desired amount of dressing. Arrange orange segments and beet pieces on top. Sprinkle with walnuts and cheese. (Don't toss this all together because the beets will turn the whole salad pink.) Serve immediately.

tip You can use your favorite store-bought or homemade vinaigrette with this recipe. Balsamic or champagne vinaigrette would both work.

You can cut up the cooked beets and drizzle with a little balsamic for a warm side dish.

TABBOULEH

Loaded with fresh herbs, crunchy cucumber, and juicy tomatoes, classic tabbouleh is delicious as a side salad, stuffed in pita pockets with hummus, or as part of a mezze platter. For a gluten-free option, swap the bulgur for Perfect Quinoa.

---

SERVES: 6

PREP: 15 MINUTES

PRESSURE: 12 MINUTES

TOTAL: 45 MINUTES

SETTINGS: RICE (LOW)

RELEASE: QUICK

---

1 cup uncooked coarse bulgur wheat (such as Bob's Red Mill Red Bulgur)

2 cups water

2 tbsp extra virgin olive oil

3 cups finely chopped flat-leaf parsley (3 bunches)

1/2 cup finely chopped fresh mint

2 Persian cucumbers, chopped into 1/2-in (1.25cm) pieces

1pt (551ml) rainbow cherry tomatoes, halved

1/4 cup fresh lemon juice

1/2 tsp sea salt

1/4 tsp ground cumin

Freshly ground black pepper, to taste

- 1 Add the bulgur wheat and 2 cups water to the inner pot. Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Rice (Low), and set the cook time for 12 minutes.
- 2 Once the cook time is complete, immediately quick release the pressure. Carefully remove the lid and stir the bulgur. Transfer to a large salad bowl and dress with the olive oil to help separate the grains. Allow the bulgur to cool completely. You can place the bowl in the freezer for a few minutes to speed up cooling.
- 3 Add all remaining ingredients to the bulgur, and toss gently to combine. Season to taste with any additional salt, pepper, and lemon juice.
- 4 Refrigerate until ready to serve. This salad tastes best after it's chilled for a few hours.

ITALIAN FARRO SALAD

Farro has been an Italian staple since ancient Roman times. It's a hearty, chewy, nutty grain that is great for soups and salads. This simple tomato and farro salad is commonly found in cafés throughout Tuscany.

---

SERVES: 6

PREP: 15 MINUTES

PRESSURE: 17 MINUTES

TOTAL: 40 MINUTES

SETTINGS: PRESSURE COOK (HIGH)

RELEASE: NATURAL, QUICK

---

1 cup farro, rinsed and drained (see tip)

3 cups water

4 Roma tomatoes, deseeded and diced

½ yellow onion, diced

1 yellow bell pepper, deseeded and diced

1 medium bunch fresh basil, leaves thinly sliced

¼ cup extra virgin olive oil, plus more for serving

¼ cup balsamic vinegar, plus more for serving

1 clove garlic, minced

Sea salt, to taste

Freshly ground black pepper, to taste

5oz (140g) baby lettuce mix (about 4 cups), for serving

- 1 Add the farro and 3 cups water to the inner pot. Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 17 minutes.
- 2 Once the cook time is complete, allow the pressure to release naturally for 10 minutes, then quick release any remaining pressure. Carefully remove the lid and transfer the cooked farro to a sieve and rinse with cold water to stop the cooking.
- 3 To prepare the salad, add the diced tomatoes, onion, bell pepper, and basil to a salad bowl. Add the cooked and cooled farro, and toss to combine.
- 4 In a small bowl, whisk together the olive oil, balsamic vinegar, and garlic. Dress the farro salad with the vinaigrette and season to taste with salt and pepper. Serve the farro salad immediately on plates or in bowls over a bed of lettuce, drizzled with a bit more oil and vinegar.

tip There are several varieties of farro on the market, from traditional whole farro to quick-cooking or semi-perlato. I recommend Bob's Red Mill Organic Farro. If using semi-perlato, cook on high pressure for 6 minutes with 2 cups water.

BALELA

This flavorful Middle Eastern salad with tomatoes, onions, and olives is tastier than ever made with freshly cooked chickpeas. It's perfect for meal prep because it stays fresh for several days.

SERVES: 6

PREP: 10 MINUTES, PLUS OVERNIGHT FOR SOAKING

PRESSURE: 12 MINUTES

TOTAL: 40 MINUTES

SETTINGS: PRESSURE COOK (HIGH)

RELEASE: NATURAL

- 1 cup dried chickpeas, soaked overnight
  - 4 cups water
  - 1 tbsp extra virgin olive oil
  - 3 tbsp red wine vinegar
  - 2 tbsp freshly squeezed lemon juice
  - 1 clove garlic, minced

1pt (551ml) cherry tomatoes, quartered

1/2 small red onion, diced

1/2 cup pitted Kalamata olive halves

1/2 cup chopped flat-leaf parsley

Sea salt, to taste

Freshly ground black pepper, to taste

- 1 Drain and rinse the chickpeas, and add them to the inner pot. Add 4 cups water. There should be an inch or two of water covering the beans; if not, add more.
- 2 Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 12 minutes.
- 3 Once the cook time is complete, allow the pressure to release naturally. Carefully remove the lid and make sure the beans are tender. If not, lock the lid and pressure cook for 3 minutes more.
- 4 Drain the beans and transfer to a medium bowl. Immediately toss with the olive oil, vinegar, lemon juice, and garlic so they don't dry out. Let cool to room temperature.
- 5 Add the tomatoes, onion, olives, and parsley. Toss to combine. Season to taste with salt and pepper. Enjoy immediately, or store covered in the refrigerator for up to 4 days.

STRAWBERRY CHICKPEA QUINOA SALAD

This hearty, sweet, and savory salad features vibrant colors, a variety of textures, and plenty of satiating protein from the quinoa and fat from the avocado. It makes a great lunch or light dinner.

SERVES: 6

PREP: 10 MINUTES

PRESSURE: 33 MINUTES, PLUS 1 MINUTE

TOTAL: 1 HOUR 20 MINUTES

SETTINGS: PRESSURE COOK (HIGH)

RELEASE: NATURAL, QUICK

---

1 cup dried chickpeas, rinsed

5 cups water, divided

1 cup quinoa, rinsed

1/4 tsp sea salt

1/2 small red onion, halved and thinly sliced

5 strawberries, sliced

2 Persian cucumbers, diced

1 small bunch flat-leaf parsley, chopped
3 cups chopped baby spinach or arugula
1 avocado

FOR THE VINAIGRETTE:

3 tbsp extra virgin olive oil
¼ cup apple cider vinegar
1 clove garlic, minced
1 tbsp pure maple syrup
1 tbsp Dijon mustard
½ tsp sea salt

- 1 Add the chickpeas and 4 cups water to the inner pot. Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 33 minutes.
- 2 Once the cook time is complete, allow the pressure to release naturally for 10 minutes, then quick release any remaining pressure. Carefully remove the lid.
- 3 Place the trivet or steam rack in the pot on top of the chickpeas. In an oven-safe dish, add the quinoa, salt, and remaining 1 cup water. Place the dish on the trivet. Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 1 minute.
- 4 Once the cook time is complete, allow the pressure to release naturally.
- 5 Carefully remove the lid, dish, and trivet. Transfer the quinoa to a salad bowl. Drain the chickpeas and rinse with cold water to speed up cooling. Add the drained chickpeas to the bowl of quinoa, and let cool.

- 6 Add the onion, strawberries, cucumbers, parsley, and spinach, and toss gently to combine.
- 7 To make the vinaigrette, in a small bowl, whisk together all ingredients. Toss the salad in the desired amount of dressing. Just before serving, pit and slice the avocado and place on top. Eat immediately, or cover and refrigerate for up to 1 day.

MEDITERRANEAN LENTIL SALAD

This is a hearty Mediterranean lentil salad loaded with flavor, color, and texture from the briny olives, crunchy veggies, and creamy, dairy-free cheese. The cold salad is perfect as a light dinner or packed lunch.

SERVES: 6

PREP: 10 MINUTES

PRESSURE: 8 MINUTES

TOTAL: 30 MINUTES

SETTINGS: PRESSURE COOK (HIGH)

RELEASE: NATURAL, QUICK

---

¾ cup dried green lentils

1½ cups water

1 cup cherry tomatoes, halved

1 cup sliced Persian cucumbers

1 cup diced red or yellow bell peppers

½ cup halved Kalamata olives

1 small red onion, thinly sliced

1/2 cup crumbled dairy-free soft cheese (such as Treeline, Kite Hill, Heidi Ho, or Miyoko's) (optional)

1/4 cup chopped flat leaf parsley

FOR THE DRESSING:

1/4 cup extra virgin olive oil

3 tbsp red wine vinegar

Juice of 1/2 lemon

1 tsp Dijon mustard

1 tsp dried oregano

1/2 tsp sea salt

- 1 Pick through the lentils and discard any debris or little stones. Rinse with cold water and drain. Add the lentils and 1 1/2 cups water to the inner pot. Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 8 minutes.
- 2 Once the cook time is complete, allow the pressure to release naturally for 5 minutes, then quick release any remaining pressure. Carefully remove the lid. Drain the lentils and let cool to room temperature.
- 3 To make the dressing, in a small bowl or jar, whisk together all ingredients. The dressing will probably separate and need whisking again before dressing the salad.
- 4 In a large salad bowl, arrange the lentils, tomatoes, cucumber, bell pepper, olives, onion, cheese, and parsley. Dress with the desired amount of vinaigrette. Cover and refrigerate to chill, or enjoy immediately.

tip Lentils don't need to be soaked, and they cook much more quickly than beans. Cook time may vary, however, depending on the size and age of the lentils. Shoot for the minimum cook time to avoid mushy lentils.

TOTAL: 1 HOUR

SETTINGS: PRESSURE COOK (HIGH)

RELEASE: NATURAL, QUICK

---

1 cup dry black beans, picked over and rinsed

3 cups water, divided

1/2 cup long-grain brown rice, rinsed

1 ear corn, kernels cut off

1 green bell pepper, deseeded and diced

1pt (551ml) cherry tomatoes, halved

1/2 cup diced red onion
Juice of 1 lime
1 tbsp red wine vinegar
1 clove garlic, minced
1 tsp ground cumin
1 cup chopped fresh cilantro
1/2 tsp sea salt
1 avocado, diced

- 1 Add the beans and 2 1/2 cups water to the inner pot. Place the trivet over the beans.
- 2 In an oven-safe bowl or baking dish, such as Pyrex, add the rice, the remaining 1/2 cup water, and a pinch of salt. Place the dish on the trivet.
- 3 Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 25 minutes.
- 4 Once the cook time is complete, allow the pressure to release naturally for 15 minutes, then quick release any remaining pressure. Carefully remove the lid and take the dish of rice off the trivet. Remove the trivet.
- 5 Transfer the rice to a large salad bowl and fluff with a fork. Drain the beans in a colander and rinse with cold water. Transfer the beans to the salad bowl.
- 6 Add the corn kernels, bell peppers, tomatoes, onion, lime juice, vinegar, garlic, cumin, and cilantro. Toss to combine. Season to taste with salt. Top with avocado just before eating. Enjoy warm or refrigerate until ready to eat.

1 large bunch kale (about 10oz; 285g)

2 tbsp extra virgin olive oil

6 cloves garlic, thinly sliced crosswise

½ cup vegetable broth

¼ tsp sea salt

Freshly ground black pepper, to taste

- 1 Remove and discard the middle stems from the kale, and roughly chop the leafy parts. Rinse and drain the kale.

- 2 Select Sauté (Low), and heat the oil in the inner pot. Add the garlic and sauté for about 2 minutes until tender and golden, taking care not to burn it. Press Cancel. Transfer the garlic and oil to a small bowl and set aside.

BRUSSELS SPROUTS

with Balsamic Glaze

These Brussels sprouts are steamed and then seared, so they're perfectly tender on the inside without getting mushy. Tangy sweet balsamic glaze adds another layer of flavor.

---

SERVES: 4

PREP: 5 MINUTES

PRESSURE: 1 MINUTE

TOTAL: 15 MINUTES

SETTINGS: PRESSURE COOK (HIGH),
SAUTÉ (HIGH)

RELEASE: QUICK

---

14oz (400g) whole medium-sized Brussels sprouts

1 cup water

1 tbsp extra virgin olive oil

Sea salt, to taste

Freshly ground black pepper, to taste

½ cup balsamic vinegar

- 1 Trim a thin slice off the bottom of the Brussels sprouts and remove a few outer leaves from each. Fit the inner pot with a steamer basket, and add 1 cup water. Add the Brussels sprouts to the steamer basket.

2 Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 1 minute.

4 Select Sauté (High). When the pot is hot, add the oil. Once sizzling, add the steamed Brussels sprouts and season with salt and pepper. Turn occasionally with tongs or a spatula, until seared, about 3 minutes.

5 Meanwhile, make the balsamic glaze. Pour the balsamic vinegar into a small saucepan over medium-low heat. Simmer until the vinegar is reduced and syrupy and coats the back of a spoon, 5 to 10 minutes.

6 Serve the Brussels sprouts hot with a small bowl of the balsamic glaze on the side for drizzling.

tip I like to serve the balsamic glaze on the side for anyone (especially young children) who may prefer their Brussels sprouts simply seasoned with salt and pepper.

RATATOUILLE

This swirled Ratatouille is as delicious as it is beautiful. Delicate tomato sauce, fresh herbs, and a simple vinaigrette infuse tender summer vegetables with flavor in this French-inspired recipe.

SERVES: 4

PREP: 15 MINUTES

PRESSURE: 25 MINUTES

TOTAL: 55 MINUTES

SETTINGS: SAUTÉ (MEDIUM), PRESSURE
COOK (HIGH)

RELEASE: QUICK

---

1 cup water

1 zucchini, thinly sliced crosswise

1 yellow summer squash, thinly sliced crosswise

1 Japanese eggplant, thinly sliced crosswise

2 Roma tomatoes, thinly sliced crosswise

Pinch of sea salt

Pinch of freshly ground black pepper

Fresh thyme leaves, for garnish

½ cup chopped fresh basil leaves, for garnish

FOR THE SAUCE:

1 tbsp extra virgin olive oil (optional)

1 small shallot, chopped

1 clove garlic, minced

1 tsp fresh thyme leaves

1 (15oz; 420g) can crushed tomatoes

¼ tsp sea salt

FOR THE VINAIGRETTE:

1 tbsp extra virgin olive oil

1 tbsp balsamic vinegar

1 clove garlic, minced

1 To make the sauce, select Sauté (Medium), and heat the oil, if using, in the inner pot until hot. (Otherwise, you can dry sauté in the hot pot, or add a bit of water in the bottom of the pot.) Add the shallot and sauté until softened, about 2 minutes. Add the garlic and thyme, and sauté 1 minute more, taking care not to burn the garlic or shallot. Add the tomatoes and salt. Simmer for 5 minutes, stirring occasionally, until the sauce has thickened slightly. Press Cancel.

2 Spread ¾ cup sauce in the bottom of a 7-inch (17.5cm) oven-safe baking dish. Save the remaining sauce for serving. Rinse the inner pot and place it back in the Instant Pot. Fit the inner pot with the trivet, and add 1 cup water.

3 Arrange the zucchini, yellow squash, eggplant, and tomato slices vertically in the sauce, alternating colors, around the perimeter of the dish. Continue until you've reached the center.

- 4 Season the vegetables with a pinch of salt and pepper. Cover the dish with foil, and place on the trivet. Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 25 minutes.
- 5 Once the cook time is complete, immediately quick release the pressure. Carefully remove the lid and dish. Remove the foil. Garnish with fresh thyme and basil leaves.
- 6 Meanwhile, make the vinaigrette. Whisk all ingredients until combined. Enjoy the vegetables immediately with the vinaigrette drizzled over and more sauce, if desired.

APPLESAUCE

FOR EVERY SEASON

Homemade applesauce is so much tastier than store-bought and takes just a few minutes to prepare. From classic to flavored, here are applesauce varieties for all four seasons.

MAKES: ABOUT 4 CUPS

PREP: 10 MINUTES

PRESSURE: 6 MINUTES

TOTAL: 40 MINUTES

SETTINGS: PRESSURE COOK (HIGH)

RELEASE: NATURAL, QUICK

---

3lb (1.5kg) apples, peeled and quartered

1 tbsp fresh lemon juice

1/2 cup water

OPTIONAL ADDITIONS:

Winter: 1 1/2 cups fresh or frozen cranberries

Spring: 1 1/2 cups fresh or frozen blackberries

Summer: 1 1/2 cups fresh or frozen peach slices

Autumn: 2 cinnamon sticks

- 1 Add the apples, lemon juice, and  $\frac{1}{2}$  cup water to the inner pot. Add any of the optional additions, if desired. Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 6 minutes.
- 2 Once the cook time is complete, allow the pressure to release naturally for 10 minutes, then quick release any remaining pressure. Carefully remove the lid. Use a potato masher to mash the apples to your desired consistency.
- 3 Transfer to a lidded glass storage container. Enjoy warm or cold. Store in the refrigerator for up to 10 days.

tip You can make this as a half batch if preferred. Quick release immediately when the cook time is complete—there is less applesauce, so it won't sputter out of the valve the way it does with a full batch.*

TOTAL: 15 MINUTES

SETTINGS: PRESSURE COOK (HIGH),
SAUTÉ (HIGH)

RELEASE: QUICK

---

1lb (450g) 1-in (2.5cm) baby potatoes

1 cup water

1 tbsp extra virgin olive oil

1 tbsp chopped fresh rosemary leaves

1 clove garlic, minced

Sea salt, to taste

Freshly ground black pepper, to taste

- 1 Fit the inner pot with a steamer basket. Rinse the potatoes and add them to the basket. Add 1 cup water.
  - 2 Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 3 minutes.
  - 3 Once the cook time is complete, immediately quick release the pressure and carefully remove the lid. If the potatoes are not completely tender, cook for 2 minutes more, or until tender. Remove the steamer basket. Using potholders, discard the cooking water from the inner pot. Place the inner pot back into the Instant Pot.
  - 4 Select Sauté (High), and heat the oil until very hot and sizzling. Add the potatoes and sauté for 3 to 5 minutes to crisp up the skin. Press Cancel. Add the rosemary and garlic, and sauté 1 minute more.
  - 5 Season the potatoes to taste with salt and pepper. Transfer to a serving bowl and enjoy warm.

tip Cook time may vary depending on the size of your potatoes. If yours are larger than 1 inch (2.5cm), you may want to add another minute or two.

SAGE SWEET POTATO MASH

Fresh sage leaves add beautiful earthiness and contrast to mashed sweet potatoes. This recipe makes a quick and easy weeknight side dish but is just as at home on your holiday dinner table.

SERVES: 4

PREP: 5 MINUTES

PRESSURE: 3 MINUTES

TOTAL: 15 MINUTES

SETTINGS: PRESSURE COOK (HIGH),
SAUTÉ (MEDIUM)

RELEASE: QUICK

---

1 cup water

4 cups peeled sweet potato chunks (2-in; 5-cm pieces; about 2lb)

3 tbsp vegan butter (such as Miyoko's or Earth Balance)

4 sage leaves, thinly sliced

Sea salt, to taste

Freshly ground black pepper, to taste

- 1 Fit the inner pot with a steamer basket, and add 1 cup water. Place the sweet potato chunks into the basket. Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 3 minutes.

2 Once the cook time is complete, immediately quick release the pressure. Carefully remove the lid and ensure sweet potatoes are very tender. If not, lock the lid and pressure cook for 1 minute more, or until tender. Use tongs to carefully remove the steamer basket and potatoes. Discard the water and return the inner pot to the Instant Pot.

3 Select Sauté (Medium), and melt the butter. Sauté the sage leaves until fragrant, about 2 minutes. Add the sweet potatoes to the pot and mash with a potato masher to the desired consistency. Season to taste with salt and pepper. Serve immediately.

TRUFFLED OLIVE OIL MASHED POTATOES

These mashed potatoes are decadently flavored with garlic, olive oil, and truffles, so you won't miss the dairy.

---

SERVES: 6

PREP: 10 MINUTES

PRESSURE: 8 MINUTES

TOTAL: 30 MINUTES

SETTINGS: PRESSURE COOK (HIGH)

RELEASE: QUICK

---

2lb (1kg) peeled Yukon Gold potatoes (about 5 medium), cut into 2-in (5cm) pieces

8 cloves garlic, peeled

1 cup, plus 2 tbsp water

1/4 cup extra virgin olive oil

1 tsp truffle salt

- 1 Add the potatoes, garlic, and 1 cup plus 2 tablespoons water to the inner pot. Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 8 minutes.

- 2 Once the cook time is complete, immediately quick release the pressure and carefully remove the lid. The potatoes should be tender with just a little water remaining in the pot. If potatoes are not yet tender, put the lid back on and pressure cook for 2 minutes more.
- 3 Use a potato masher to mash the potatoes and garlic. Whisk or stir in the olive oil and truffle salt.

tip For even richer flavor, mash in a few cloves of roasted garlic (see Roasted Garlic Crostini) instead of cooking with the raw garlic.

WHOLE ROASTED CAULIFLOWER with Garlic and Herb Crust

Roasting a whole cauliflower traditionally takes about an hour. With this simple Instant Pot method, it takes just minutes! Packed with flavor and crunch, this dish is like the vegetable version of garlic bread. Serve as a side dish, or as a main on a bed of sweet potato mash.

SERVES: 4 AS A SIDE DISH

PREP: 5 MINUTES

PRESSURE: 0 MINUTES

TOTAL: 25 MINUTES

SETTINGS: PRESSURE COOK (HIGH)

RELEASE: QUICK

---

1 medium whole cauliflower
1 cup water
3 tbsp sea salt

4½ tbsp melted, salted vegan butter (such as Miyoko's)
3 cloves garlic, minced
¾ cup plain panko bread crumbs (gluten-free bread crumbs, if needed)
¼ cup chopped flat-leaf parsley
Sea salt, to taste
Freshly ground black pepper, to taste

- 1 Rinse and pat the cauliflower dry. Cut off the leaves, but do not remove much of the stem, or the florets may fall off. Preheat the oven to 450°F (230°C).
- 2 Add 1 cup water and the salt to the inner pot. Fit the inner pot with a steamer basket, and place the whole cauliflower, stem-side down, into the basket. Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 0 minutes. (Even though the pressure cooking time is 0 minutes, the cauliflower cooks perfectly during the time it takes the pot to come to pressure.)
- 3 Immediately quick release the pressure. Carefully remove the lid and set the cauliflower in a casserole dish.
- 4 In a small bowl, stir together the melted butter and garlic. Turn the cauliflower upside down and brush with garlic butter (about ½ tablespoon). Turn the cauliflower right side up and brush with the remaining garlic butter. Press the bread crumbs and parsley firmly onto the cauliflower, creating a crust and ensuring the bread crumbs are moistened with butter. (Some bread crumbs will fall to the bottom, which will be used later for serving.)
- 5 Transfer to the oven and roast for 5 to 10 minutes until the bread crumbs are golden brown, checking often for burning. If the top of the cauliflower gets too brown, cover with a small piece of foil to allow the rest of the cauliflower and the crumbs at the bottom of the dish to brown.

- 6 Season with a pinch of salt and pepper. Cut into slices. Serve the slices immediately, topped with additional toasted garlic bread crumbs from the bottom of the dish.

tip Be sure to choose a cauliflower that will fit in your Instant Pot steamer basket. Seven inches (17½cm) across is perfect for a 6-quart (5.5l) Instant Pot.

CREAMY POLENTA

This comforting Italian side dish traditionally requires constant attention and stirring but takes just a minute of prep in the Instant Pot. It's lovely as a side to accompany ratatouille or as a base for sautéed mushrooms or greens.

---

SERVES: 6

PREP: 1 MINUTE

PRESSURE: 7 MINUTES

TOTAL: 30 MINUTES

SETTINGS: PRESSURE COOK (HIGH)

RELEASE: NATURAL, QUICK

---

4 cups water

1 cup uncooked polenta

1/2 tsp sea salt

Freshly ground black pepper, to taste

1/2 cup shredded vegan Parmesan cheese (such as Follow Your Heart)

- 1 Add 4 cups water to the inner pot. Gently sprinkle the polenta, salt, and a pinch of pepper over the water, without stirring. If stirred, the polenta will often trigger the burn warning on the Instant Pot.

- 2 Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 7 minutes.
- 3 Once the cook time is complete, allow the pressure to release naturally for 10 minutes, then quick release any remaining pressure. Whisk until smooth and stir in the Parmesan. Season to taste with additional salt and pepper. The polenta will firm up as it cools, but if it doesn't seem cooked enough, put the lid back on and let it sit for 10 minutes more.
- 4 Serve warm right away because polenta will solidify if left at room temperature too long.

- 2 Once the cook time is complete, allow the pressure to release naturally for 15 minutes, then quick release any remaining pressure. Press Cancel. Carefully remove the lid and drain the beans in a colander. Rinse the beans with cold water.
- 3 Place the inner pot back into the Instant Pot. Select Sauté (Medium), and heat the oil, if using, in the inner pot until hot. (Otherwise, you can dry sauté in the hot pot or add a bit of water in the bottom of the pot.) Add the onion and sauté until softened and golden, 3 to 5 minutes. Press Cancel. Add the remaining  $\frac{2}{3}$  cup water to deglaze the pan, using a wooden spoon to scrape up any bits stuck to the bottom.
- 4 Add the beans back to the inner pot, along with the ketchup, Worcestershire sauce, mustard, syrup, molasses, salt, and pepper. Stir to combine.
- 5 Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 5 minutes.

PERFECT QUINOA

The Instant Pot makes perfectly fluffy quinoa easier than ever. This is an easy recipe to memorize because it's all about the 1's: 1 cup quinoa, 1 cup water, 1 minute. Use your quinoa as a base for curries, salads, and veggie bowls, or dress it with a little olive oil and herbs for a side dish.

steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 1 minute.

- 2 Once the cook time is complete, allow the pressure to release naturally. Carefully remove the lid and fluff the quinoa with a spoon or fork. Drizzle with a little olive oil for flavor, if desired. Season to taste with more salt.
- 3 Transfer to a serving bowl and serve immediately. Once the lid has been removed, don't let the quinoa sit in the warm pot for longer than 10 minutes or it will start to dry out.

Pinch of ground turmeric

1/2 tsp sea salt

1/3 cup water

- 1 Fit the inner pot with the trivet or steam rack, and add 1 cup water. Trim the artichoke stem so that it is 1 to 2 inches (2.5–5cm) long, and trim about 1 inch (2.5cm) off the top. Squeeze the lemon juice over the top of the artichoke and add the lemon rind to the water. (This will add flavor and help preserve the artichoke’s color.) Place the artichoke, top-side down, on the trivet.
- 2 Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Steam (High), and set the cook time for 15 minutes for one large artichoke, or 10 minutes for 3 medium artichokes.
- 3 Once the cook time is complete, immediately quick release the pressure. Carefully remove the lid and check for doneness—leaves should be easy to remove and the “meat” at the base of each leaf should be tender. If the artichoke is not yet done, place back on the trivet and use Pressure Cook (High), cooking for 2 to 3 minutes more until tender. You might need to add more water to account for evaporation if adding more time.
- 4 Meanwhile, make the aioli dipping sauce. Drain the cashews and place them in a blender. Add the Dijon, vinegar, lemon juice, garlic, turmeric, and sea salt. Add half the water and blend. Continue adding water as you blend until the sauce is smooth and creamy. Transfer the sauce to a small bowl or jar. Refrigerate until ready to use.

5 Use tongs to remove the hot artichoke and place on a serving dish. Serve the artichoke warm with the aioli.

tip Whole artichokes can take anywhere from 6 to 12 minutes to cook at high pressure and up to 17 minutes on steam mode, depending on the size and age. Using the Steam setting retains the most vitamins and minerals, as well as color. If you don't like very soft artichokes, it's best to start with a lower time and add more minutes as needed.

MUSHROOM POLENTA ROUNDS

These addictive small bites are party-ready and bursting with deep-flavored umami.

MAKES: 16 ROUNDS

PREP: 3 MINUTES

PRESSURE: 10 MINUTES, PLUS 3 MINUTES

TOTAL: 25 MINUTES

SETTINGS: PRESSURE COOK (LOW), SAUTÉ (MEDIUM)

RELEASE: QUICK

---

1 (18oz; 510g) package precooked polenta

Cooking spray, for coating

1oz (25g) dried porcini or dried mixed mushrooms (about 1 cup dry)

Water, to cover

8oz (225g) fresh cremini mushrooms, halved

4 cloves garlic, minced

4 sprigs fresh thyme

1/8 tsp sea salt

Freshly ground black pepper

Truffle salt (optional), for finishing

¼ cup freshly chopped flat-leaf parsley or basil

- 1 Preheat the oven to 425°F (220°C). Coat a baking sheet with cooking spray. Cut the polenta crosswise into ½-inch (1.25cm) rounds and place on the baking sheet. Coat the rounds with cooking spray. Bake for 15 minutes, flipping halfway.
- 2 Meanwhile, to rehydrate the dried mushrooms, add them to the inner pot and cover with 1 inch (2.5cm) of water. Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (Low), and set the cook time for 10 minutes.
- 3 Once the cook time is complete, immediately quick release the pressure. Drain the rehydrated mushrooms through a fine-mesh sieve over a bowl to reserve the cooking liquid—this is an excellent mushroom broth to use later. Roughly chop the mushrooms.
- 4 Add the cremini mushroom halves and rehydrated mushrooms back into the pot. Add ½ cup mushroom broth. Top with the garlic, thyme, salt, and pepper.
- 5 Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 3 minutes. Once the cook time is complete, immediately quick release the pressure.
- 6 Select Sauté (Medium), and reduce the liquid for 2 minutes. Remove the thyme stems.
- 7 Place the polenta rounds on a serving dish and spoon the mushroom mixture on top. Sprinkle with truffle salt, if using. Garnish with fresh parsley or basil. Enjoy warm.

tip Dried mushrooms have deeper flavor and create a beautiful broth to use later in soups, stews, or risotto. Find them and truffle salt on Amazon or at Cost Plus World Market.

ROASTED GARLIC CROSTINI

While this garlic isn't truly roasted, steaming and then broiling creates a similar result in much less time. Squeeze out the mild, soft, creamy garlic cloves and spread them on crostini to enjoy plain, or add some of your favorite toppings.

SERVES: 6

PREP: 2 MINUTES

PRESSURE: 5 MINUTES

TOTAL: 30 MINUTES

SETTINGS: PRESSURE COOK (HIGH)

RELEASE: NATURAL

---

1 cup water

2 heads garlic

2 tsp extra virgin olive oil, divided

Sea salt, to taste

1 small loaf crusty bread, such as ciabatta, cut into 6 slices

OPTIONAL TOPPINGS:

Baby arugula

Fresh basil

Roasted red peppers

Sun dried tomatoes

Halved cherry tomatoes

Grilled asparagus, eggplant, or zucchini

- 1 Fit the inner pot with the trivet or steam rack and add 1 cup water. Cut about  $\frac{1}{4}$  inch (0.5cm) off the top of the garlic heads. Drizzle with 1 teaspoon oil and sprinkle with a pinch of salt. Place the garlic cut-side up onto the trivet.
- 2 Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 5 minutes.
- 3 Once the cook time is complete, allow the pressure to release naturally. Carefully remove the lid.
- 4 Preheat the broiler. Use tongs to transfer the steamed garlic bulbs to a baking sheet. Place the bread slices on the baking sheet, as well. Drizzle the garlic with the remaining 1 teaspoon oil.
- 5 Transfer the sheet to the oven and broil until the tops of the garlic have browned and the bread is toasted, watching closely to ensure it doesn't burn. The toast may be done before the garlic.
- 6 Serve the "roasted" garlic bulbs on a platter with the toast and any additional toppings. To make the crostini, remove the garlic from the skin and spread 1 to 2 cloves of the soft garlic on the crostini. Sprinkle with a pinch of salt and top with any additional toppings. Enjoy warm or at room temperature.

WHITE BEAN BRUSCHETTA

My family and I discovered bruschetta di fagioli in Tuscany, and it's been a favorite appetizer ever since. While not traditional, we like to add a slice of tomato under the beans. Crunchy, garlicky toasted bread topped with creamy white beans, olive oil, and parsley is a satisfying starter.

SERVES: 10

PREP: 10 MINUTES, PLUS OVERNIGHT FOR SOAKING

PRESSURE: 6 MINUTES

TOTAL: 36 MINUTES

SETTINGS: PRESSURE COOK (HIGH)

RELEASE: NATURAL

---

1 cup dry cannellini beans, soaked overnight
4 cups water
4 cloves garlic, minced
2 sprigs rosemary

4 sage leaves

3 tbsp extra virgin olive oil, plus more to serve

Truffle salt (or sea salt), to taste

Freshly ground black pepper, to taste

1 loaf crusty bread, such as baguette or ciabatta, sliced

2 cloves garlic, peeled and halved

2 Roma tomatoes, sliced

1/4 cup chopped flat-leaf parsley

1 Add the beans, 4 cups water, minced garlic, rosemary, and sage to the inner pot. Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 6 minutes.

2 Once the cook time is complete, allow the pressure to release naturally for 15 to 20 minutes. Carefully remove the lid and gently drain the beans in a colander. Transfer the beans to a bowl. Remove the rosemary stems. Dress with olive oil, salt, and pepper to taste.

3 Toast the bread slices in the oven, on a grill, or in a grill pan. Rub the warm toast on one side with the raw garlic halves to impart garlic flavor.

4 Top the toasted slices with tomato, then the beans. Top with a generous drizzle of olive oil, salt, and pepper. Garnish with chopped parsley. Enjoy warm or at room temperature.

tip Using soaked beans and the natural pressure release helps prevent the beans from breaking apart. It's also best to use the minimal cook time for this recipe to avoid overly mushy beans, but the exact cook time may vary depending on size and age of beans.

CASHEW “QUESO” DIP

Creamy with a little kick of spicy, this queso dip uses cashews to imitate a cheesy dip. This is fun to serve on a Mexican-inspired party platter with guacamole, veggies, and chips.

MAKES: 1½ CUPS

PRESSURE: 2 MINUTES

TOTAL: 15 MINUTES

SETTINGS: PRESSURE COOK (HIGH)

RELEASE: QUICK

---

1⅓ cup water, divided

½ cup (1-in; 2.5cm cubes) peeled Yukon Gold potatoes

½ cup (1-in; 2.5 slices) peeled carrots

½ cup raw cashews, soaked overnight or at least one hour in hot water

1 tbsp garlic powder

1-2 jalapeños, deseeded

1 tsp tomato paste
1 tsp sea salt
1/4 cup nutritional yeast
Hot sauce, to taste

FOR SERVING:

Homemade or store-bought salsa
Fresh cilantro, for garnish
1 bag tortilla chips (omit for oil-free)
2 carrots, peeled and cut into sticks
2 stalks celery, cut into sticks
1 red bell pepper, deseeded and cut into slices

- 1 Fit the inner pot with a steamer basket, and add 1 cup water. Place the potatoes and carrots in the steamer basket. Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 2 minutes.
- 2 Once the cook time is complete, immediately quick release the pressure and carefully remove the lid. Check that the vegetables are tender. If they're not yet tender, lock the lid and pressure cook for 1 minute more.
- 3 Transfer the steamed veggies to a blender. Drain the cashews and add to the blender. Add the garlic powder, 1 jalapeño, tomato paste, salt, nutritional yeast, and remaining 1/3 cup water. Blend until completely smooth. Taste and add another jalapeño or hot sauce for heat. Blend in more water as needed to thin.
- 4 Use a rubber spatula to scoop the mixture into a small serving bowl. Top with 1/4 cup salsa and a few cilantro leaves. Serve the queso dip warm on a platter with chips, carrots, celery, bell pepper, and a bowl of the remaining salsa.

SICILIAN EGGPLANT CAPONATA

One of the most popular Sicilian appetizers, caponata is bursting with flavor from briny olives and capers, sweet tomatoes, and soft eggplant. This version is much easier and lower in oil than the traditional recipe, which calls for frying the eggplant in copious amounts of oil.

SERVES: 8

PREP: 10 MINUTES

PRESSURE: 3 MINUTES

SETTINGS: SAUTÉ (MEDIUM), PRESSURE
COOK (LOW)

RELEASE: QUICK

---

2 tbsp extra virgin olive oil (optional)

1 small yellow onion, diced

2 cloves garlic, minced, divided

1/3 cup water

1 large eggplant (about 1lb; 450g), cut into 1-in (2.5cm) cubes

2 stalks celery, diced

1/2 tsp sea salt
1/4 tsp red pepper flakes
4 Roma tomatoes, deseeded and chopped
2 tbsp tomato paste
1/3 cup pitted green olives, quartered
3 tbsp capers, drained
1 tbsp red wine vinegar
1/2 tsp organic sugar
1/4 cup chopped flat-leaf parsley

- 1 Select Sauté (Medium), and heat the oil, if using, in the inner pot until hot. (Otherwise, you can dry sauté in the hot pot or add a bit of water in the bottom of the pot.) Add the onion and sauté until softened and golden, 3 to 5 minutes. Add half of the garlic and sauté 1 minute more. Add 1/3 cup water to deglaze the pan, scraping up any bits stuck to the bottom of the pot.
- 2 Layer the eggplant, celery, salt, pepper, and tomatoes, in that order, and do not stir. Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (Low), and set the cook time for 3 minutes.
- 3 Once the cook time is complete, immediately quick release the pressure. Carefully remove the lid and make sure eggplant is tender. If not, lock the lid and pressure cook for 1 minute more.
- 4 Use a ladle to drain as much liquid as possible from the pot and discard. (You should be able to remove 1/2 to 1 cup of liquid.) Select Sauté (Medium), and simmer to cook off even more liquid for about 1 minute while stirring in the tomato paste. Stir in the remaining garlic, olives, capers, vinegar, and sugar.

5 Transfer the caponata to a glass storage container or serving bowl and garnish with parsley. Enjoy warm or cold on top of pasta or scooped up with sliced and toasted baguette.

tip There are many variations of caponata throughout Italy and the world. Some include raisins and toasted pine nuts—feel free to add them to the top of this recipe if you'd like.*

VEGGIE-PACKED POTSTICKERS

Flavorful dumplings packed with vegetables are steamed and then crisped up. These make a delicious appetizer or snack.

MAKES: ABOUT 15

PREP: 15 MINUTES

PRESSURE: 3 MINUTES

TOTAL: 45 MINUTES

SETTINGS: SAUTÉ (MEDIUM), STEAM (HIGH)

RELEASE: QUICK

2 tbsp sesame or coconut oil, divided

1/2 small yellow onion, finely diced

1 1/2 cups finely diced mushrooms

1 cup shredded carrots

2 cups shredded cabbage

2 tbsp freshly minced ginger

2 cloves garlic, minced
1/4 cup chopped chives
2 tbsp soy sauce
1 package gyoza dumpling wrappers
1 cup water
1 tsp toasted sesame seeds

FOR THE DIPPING SAUCE:

1/3 cup soy sauce
2 tbsp rice vinegar
1 tbsp chives

- 1 To make the filling, select Sauté (Medium), and heat 1 tablespoon oil in the inner pot. Add the onion and mushrooms and sauté until the onion is softened and golden, 3 to 5 minutes. Add the carrots, cabbage, ginger, garlic, and chives, and sauté until all the vegetables are tender and most of the liquid has evaporated, about 5 minutes. Add the soy sauce and simmer for 1 to 2 minutes more to reduce the liquid.
- 2 To make each potsticker, place a tablespoon-sized mound of the filling onto the center of a gyoza wrapper. Moisten the edges of the wrapper with water. Bring both sides up and pinch together over the center of the filling. Pinch all along the edge, creating pleats to seal. Set aside and continue until all of the filling has been used up.
- 3 If you used the inner pot to sauté, rinse and dry it, and place it back into the Instant Pot. Fit with the trivet or steam rack and fill with 1 cup water. Place a sheet of parchment paper, roughly the same size as the pot, over the rack to hold the potstickers. Place the potstickers on the parchment. If more room is needed, place a second piece of parchment on top, then add another layer of potstickers.

- 4 Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Steam (High), and set the cook time for 3 minutes. Once the cook time is complete, immediately quick release the pressure. Carefully remove the lid and the potstickers.
  - 5 Select Sauté (Medium), and heat the remaining 1 tablespoon oil in the inner pot until hot, or use a skillet on the stovetop over medium-high heat. (Using the skillet is easiest, but both methods work.) Brown the potstickers on one or all sides. Transfer to a serving dish and immediately sprinkle with sesame seeds.
  - 6 Meanwhile, make the dipping sauce. In a small bowl, whisk together all ingredients. Serve the potstickers warm with the dipping sauce.

tip You can find gyoza wrappers at Asian grocery stores and some regular grocery stores, often next to the tofu. If you're avoiding oil, you can skip the step of frying them, but they won't have the classic crispy exterior.*

RED PEPPER HUMMUS

The Instant Pot makes last-minute homemade hummus a breeze since no soaking is required. This oil-free roasted red pepper version has extra flavor from fresh garlic and smoky peppers. Use as a dip for veggies and pita bread or as a spread for sandwiches and wraps.

---

MAKES: ABOUT 2½ CUPS

PREP: 5 MINUTES

TOTAL: 1 HOUR 20 MINUTES

SETTINGS: PRESSURE COOK (HIGH)

RELEASE: NATURAL

---

1 cup dried chickpeas, rinsed

4 cups water

1 (12oz; 340g) jar roasted red bell peppers, drained and patted dry

¼ cup tahini

3 cloves garlic, roughly chopped

½ tsp sea salt

1/2 tsp smoked paprika

Pita bread, cut into triangles, for serving

Persian cucumbers, sliced, for serving

- 1 Add the chickpeas and 4 cups water to the inner pot. Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 40 minutes.
- 2 Once the cook time is complete, allow the pressure to release naturally. Carefully remove the lid and drain the chickpeas over a bowl to reserve the cooking liquid. Transfer the drained chickpeas to the bowl of a food processor. (Blending while the chickpeas are still warm results in a creamier hummus.) Reserve a 1-inch (2.5cm) piece of a red pepper for garnish, and add the rest of the red peppers to the food processor. Add the tahini, garlic, salt, and paprika.
- 3 Lock the lid of the food processor and blend until combined. Add the reserved cooking liquid, also known as aquafaba, 1 tablespoon at a time through the tube to help blend. Continue blending and adding aquafaba as needed until very smooth and creamy. You may need up to 3/4 cup aquafaba.
- 4 Remove the lid and adjust the salt and paprika to taste. Transfer the hummus to a lidded container or serving bowl. Chop the remaining piece of roasted pepper and place on top for garnish. Refrigerate for at least 2 hours.
- 5 Once chilled, serve the hummus with pita bread and cucumbers, or use as a sandwich spread. Store leftovers in an airtight container in the refrigerator for up to 5 days.

SPINACH ARTICHOKE DIP

This easy, hot spinach artichoke dip is so creamy and delicious that no one would guess it's dairy-free. It's a crowd-pleasing party appetizer served with crackers and veggies.

SERVES: 6

PREP: 10 MINUTES, PLUS OVERNIGHT FOR SOAKING

PRESSURE: 20 MINUTES

TOTAL: 40 MINUTES

SETTINGS: PRESSURE COOK (HIGH)

RELEASE: QUICK

---

1 cup raw cashews, soaked overnight or for 2 hours in hot water

1½ cups water, divided

⅛ cup nutritional yeast

1 tsp garlic powder

½ tsp sea salt

¼ tsp freshly ground black pepper

2 (14oz; 400g) cans artichoke hearts in water, drained and patted dry

1 (16oz; 450g) bag frozen chopped spinach, thawed

1 green onion, thinly sliced, for garnish

OPTIONS FOR SERVING:

Seed crackers

Sliced and toasted baguette

Carrot sticks

Sliced hothouse cucumber

- 1 Drain the soaked cashews and transfer to a blender. Add  $\frac{1}{2}$  cup water, nutritional yeast, garlic powder, salt, and pepper. Blend until very smooth and creamy, about 2 minutes. Add up to another  $\frac{1}{4}$  cup water if needed to blend.
- 2 Cut the artichoke hearts into quarters and place in a medium bowl. Squeeze as much liquid as possible out of the thawed spinach. You can press it against a fine-mesh sieve or squeeze in a piece of cheesecloth or paper towel. Place the drained spinach into the bowl with the artichoke hearts.
- 3 Pour the cashew cream over the artichokes and spinach, and stir to combine. Transfer the mixture to an oven-safe baking dish, such as a 5 to 6-inch (12.5–15.25cm) soufflé dish. Cover the dish with foil.
- 4 Fit the inner pot with the trivet or steam rack, and add the remaining 1 cup water. Place the dish on the trivet. Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is in the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 20 minutes.
- 5 Once the cook time is complete, immediately quick release the pressure. Carefully remove the lid. Using potholders, remove the baking dish and foil. Garnish with green onion.

Add a pinch more of sea salt and pepper to taste. Serve warm with the desired serving options.

VEGGIE SUSHI

Homemade sushi is so much fun, and it's easier to prepare than you might expect. These veggie rolls are filled with fresh, raw vegetables, such as creamy avocado and crunchy peppers.

MAKES: 4 ROLLS; 32 (1-IN.; 2.5CM) PIECES

PREP: 20 MINUTES
PRESSURE: 3 MINUTES
TOTAL: 1 HOUR

SETTINGS: PRESSURE COOK (HIGH)
RELEASE: NATURAL

---

2 cups dried sushi rice (such as Lundberg Family Farms Organic California Sushi Rice)

2 cups water

4 sheets sushi nori

1 large avocado, sliced

1 red bell pepper, deseeded and cut into thin strips

2 Persian cucumbers, thinly sliced lengthwise

1 cup shredded carrot
Sea salt (optional), to taste
2 tbsp toasted sesame seeds

FOR SERVING:

Soy sauce (or coconut aminos for gluten-free and soy-free)
Prepared wasabi (optional)
Pickled ginger (optional)

- 1 Rinse the rice in several changes of water until the water is clear. Drain and add the rice to the inner pot along with 2 cups water.
- 2 Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 3 minutes.
- 3 Once the cook time is complete, allow the pressure to release naturally. Carefully remove the lid and stir the rice. Transfer to a bowl to cool.
- 4 To make each sushi roll, lay one piece of nori on a bamboo sushi mat or on a piece of parchment paper slightly larger than the nori sheet. Cover the nori with a thin layer of rice (about 1 cup), leaving 1 inch (2.5cm) bare at the top and bottom. Place a line of veggies along the edge closest to you. Sprinkle with a pinch of salt, if desired. Wrap that edge of nori over the veggies and continue to roll as tightly as possible until you form a log—use the bamboo mat or parchment to help to roll the sushi tightly. Seal the roll by brushing a little water where the edge meets the other side of the roll.
- 5 Use a very sharp chef's knife to cut the roll crosswise into 8 (1-in; 2.5cm) pieces. Sprinkle with sesame seeds.

6 Serve the sushi rolls immediately, or refrigerate until ready to eat. Serve with soy sauce or coconut aminos for dipping. Wasabi and pickled ginger add even more flavor for serving, but are optional.

---

tip You can find sushi rice in the rice section of many grocery stores, while nori will be in the Asian section. You can find both of these, as well as wasabi and pickled ginger, in most Asian grocery stores.

1 tbsp coconut sugar

1 tsp pure vanilla extract

1 tsp ground cinnamon

¼ tsp sea salt

Large pinch of nutmeg

⅛ tsp cayenne pepper

2½ cups raw nuts (any combination of almonds, walnuts, and cashews)

- 1 In a medium bowl, whisk together all ingredients except the nuts. Add the nuts and stir well to coat.
  - 2 Grease the bottom of the inner pot with coconut oil. Transfer the nut mixture to the pot and spread into an even layer. Select Slow Cook (Low), and set the cook time for 4 hours. Cover with a glass lid, if you have one, or the standard lid with the steam release valve set to the venting position. Stir halfway through.
  - 3 Once the cook time is complete, stir and transfer the nuts to a cookie sheet lined with parchment paper to cool for 1 hour. The nuts will crisp up as they cool. Store in an airtight glass container at room temperature for up to 3 weeks.

POPCORN

with Special Seasoning

There's no need for microwavable popcorn bags when you can make natural popcorn in the Instant Pot! Homemade popcorn is a tasty, salty, low-calorie, whole grain snack that's always satisfying.

MAKES: ABOUT 6 CUPS

COOK: 4 MINUTES

SETTINGS: SAUTÉ (HIGH)

RELEASE: NONE

---

1½ tbsp coconut oil

½ cup organic popping corn

OPTIONAL FOR SEASONING:

Nutritional yeast and sea salt

Truffle salt

Dried rosemary and sea salt

Ground cinnamon and pure maple syrup

- 1 Select Sauté (High), and add the coconut oil to melt. Once the inner pot has reached maximum heat, add the popping corn and stir to coat well with the coconut oil. Cover with a vented glass lid. If you don't have a vented glass lid that fits the pot, you can use the standard lid set on top—but not locked—with the steam release valve set to the venting position. (This recipe will take longer when using the standard lid and result in fewer popped kernels, so using a glass lid is highly recommended.)
- 2 Cook for about 4 minutes, without removing the lid, until the popping slows and most of the kernels have popped. Press Cancel.
- 3 Immediately, while the popcorn is still hot, add your desired seasonings to taste. Stir to coat. Enjoy the popcorn warm or at room temperature.

GLUTEN-FREE CARROT SNACK CAKE

This lightly sweet carrot, nut, and raisin cake has a tangy “cream cheese” topping. It is delightful for brunch, tea, or dessert.

SERVES: 8

PREP: 15 MINUTES

PRESSURE: 50 MINUTES

TOTAL: 2 HOURS, INCLUDING COOLING

SETTINGS: CAKE (HIGH) OR PRESSURE COOK (HIGH)

RELEASE: NATURAL

1 cup water

1 cup gluten-free oat flour, or gluten-free all-purpose flour

½ cup almond flour

1 tsp baking powder

1 tsp baking soda

2 tbsp arrowroot starch

1/4 tsp sea salt
1/2 cup raw turbinado sugar
1 tsp ground cinnamon
1/4 tsp nutmeg
1/4 tsp ground ginger
1 cup grated carrots
1/2 cup chopped walnuts, plus more for garnish
1/3 cup raisins
1/2 cup almond milk or other plant-based milk
2 tbsp cashew butter
1/2 tsp pure vanilla extract
2 vegan eggs (see tip)

FOR THE FROSTING:

1/2 cup vegan cream cheese (such as Kite Hill, Miyoko's, or homemade)
1 tbsp pure maple syrup
Seeds from 1/2 vanilla bean, or 1/2 tbsp vanilla bean paste (optional)

- 1 Coat a 7-inch (17.5cm) springform pan with cooking spray or grease with coconut oil. Fit the inner pot with the trivet or steam rack, and fill with 1 cup water.
- 2 In a medium bowl, whisk together the oat flour, almond flour, baking powder, baking soda, arrowroot, salt, sugar, cinnamon, nutmeg, and ginger. Stir in the carrots, walnuts, and raisins.
- 3 In another medium bowl, whisk together the almond milk, cashew butter, vanilla, and vegan eggs.

- 4 Fold the wet ingredients into the dry ingredients until combined. Spread the batter into the prepared pan. Cover the pan with foil. Place the pan on the trivet.
- 5 Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Cake (High)—if your pot has that function—or Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 50 minutes.
- 6 Once the cook time is complete, allow the pressure to release naturally for 5 minutes, then quick release any remaining pressure. Carefully remove the lid and lift the pan out of the pot. Discard the foil and set the pan on a cooling rack to cool completely before cutting. Remove the sides from the springform pan.
- 7 To make the frosting, in a small bowl, whisk together all ingredients. Add any additional maple syrup to taste. Spread the frosting onto the cooled cake and sprinkle with walnuts for garnish. Enjoy immediately. If not serving the whole cake at once, you may want to frost each piece individually just before eating because the cream cheese dries out quickly. Store covered in the refrigerator for up to 3 days.

INDIVIDUAL APPLE CRISPS

Classic apple crisps made in ramekins with a nutty almond flour and oat-based topping are a beautiful and wholesome dessert.

---

SERVES: 4

PREP: 10 MINUTES

PRESSURE: 9 MINUTES

TOTAL: 30 MINUTES

SETTINGS: PRESSURE COOK (HIGH)

RELEASE: QUICK

---

1 cup water

1pt (470ml) vegan vanilla ice cream (optional), for serving

FOR THE FILLING:

3½ cups peeled and diced Granny Smith apples (1-in; 2.5cm chunks)(about 3 large apples)

1 tbsp fresh lemon juice

1 tbsp fresh orange juice

½ tsp ground cinnamon

2 tsp coconut sugar

FOR THE TOPPING:

1/2 cup almond flour

1/2 cup old-fashioned rolled oats (certified gluten-free, if needed)

1/4 cup coconut sugar

1/4 tsp sea salt

3 tbsp vegan butter (such as Miyoko's or Earth Balance)

1 tbsp pure maple syrup

- 1 To make the filling, in a medium bowl, toss together all ingredients. Portion the filling into 4 (8fl oz; 240ml) ramekins, filling all the way to the top. Cover the ramekins with foil.
- 2 Fit the inner pot with the trivet or steam rack, and add 1 cup water. Place the ramekins on the trivet. Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 9 minutes. Once the cook time is complete, immediately quick release the pressure.
- 3 Meanwhile, prepare the topping. Place all the ingredients in the bowl of a food processor, and pulse a few times to combine. You can alternatively use your fingers to make the crumble. Preheat the oven to 500°F (260°C).
- 4 Carefully remove the lid and the ramekins. Remove the foil and make sure the apples are tender. If they're not, lock the lid and pressure cook for 1 minute more.
- 5 Spoon the desired amount of topping evenly over the apple mixture. (You may have leftovers.) Transfer the ramekins to the oven, and bake until the topping is golden brown, about 4 minutes. Enjoy warm with a scoop of ice cream on top, if desired.

REFINED-SUGAR-FREE BLUEBERRY PIE

Fresh blueberry pie filling bakes inside the Instant Pot while the gluten-free almond flour crust crisps up in the oven. Serve this juicy pie with a scoop of vanilla ice cream and an extra crust “cookie.”

SERVES: 6

PREP: 10 MINUTES

PRESSURE: 13 MINUTES

TOTAL: 45 MINUTES

SETTINGS: PRESSURE COOK (HIGH)

RELEASE: QUICK

---

1 cup water

1pt (470ml) vegan vanilla ice cream, for serving

Fresh mint leaves, for serving

FOR THE FILLING:

4 cups fresh blueberries

1 tbsp fresh lemon juice

3 tbsp corn starch

3 tbsp coconut sugar

FOR THE CRUST:

2 cups blanched almond flour

¼ cup arrowroot starch

¼ tsp sea salt

4 tbsp melted coconut oil

2 tbsp pure maple syrup

- 1 To make the filling, in a medium bowl, toss together all ingredients. Transfer to a baking dish that will fit inside the inner pot, such as a glass Pyrex or soufflé dish. A 7 x 3-inch (17.5 x 7.5cm) soufflé dish is ideal. Cover with foil.
- 2 Fit the inner pot with the trivet or steam rack, and add 1 cup water. Place the dish on the trivet. Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 13 minutes.
- 3 Once the cook time is complete, immediately quick release the pressure. Carefully remove the lid and the dish from the pot and discard the foil. Stir the filling if you'd like to break up the berries more. Let the filling cool for at least 15 minutes to thicken up.
- 4 Meanwhile, make the crust. In a medium bowl, whisk together the almond flour, arrowroot, and salt. Make a well in the middle and add the coconut oil and syrup. Stir into the dry ingredients until the dough comes together. On a piece of parchment or a silicone baking mat, roll the dough into a ¼-inch (0.5cm) thick circle slightly smaller than the dish containing the filling. Use a small, 1 to 3-inch (2.5–7.5cm) cookie cutter to cut a piece out of the center (optional) and cut more shapes from the remaining dough. Slide the parchment or silicone mat onto a cookie sheet. Transfer to the freezer for 10 minutes. Preheat the oven to 375°F (190°C).

- 5 Bake the pie crust circle and “cookies” until golden, about 10 minutes.
- 6 Let the pie crust cool. Carefully place the round piece atop the blueberry filling. Cut the pie into 8 servings, and serve in bowls with a scoop of ice cream and the small crust shapes. Garnish with fresh mint leaves.

CHOCOLATE CAKE with Dark Chocolate Ganache

Moist chocolate cake topped with silky dark chocolate ganache, fresh raspberries, and crunchy toasted hazelnuts is my all-time favorite dessert. No one would ever guess it's egg- and dairy-free.

---

SERVES: 10

PREP: 10 MINUTES

PRESSURE: 30 MINUTES

TOTAL: 1 HR 30 MINUTES

SETTINGS: CAKE (HIGH) OR PRESSURE
COOK (HIGH)

RELEASE: NATURAL, QUICK

---

1 cup water

1 cup whole wheat pastry flour

1/2 cup unsweetened cocoa powder

1/2 cup raw turbinado sugar

1 tsp baking soda
1/2 tsp baking powder
1/2 tsp instant coffee
1/4 tsp salt
3/4 cup unsweetened almond milk
1 tbsp apple cider vinegar
1 tsp pure vanilla extract
1/4 cup melted coconut oil
1/4 cup chopped, toasted hazelnuts, for garnish
1 cup fresh raspberries, for garnish
Fresh mint leaves, for garnish

FOR THE GANACHE:

3/4 cup chopped dairy-free dark chocolate
1/4-1/3 cup canned coconut milk, stirred

- 1 Fit the inner pot with the trivet or steam rack, and add with 1 cup water. Coat a 7-inch (17.5cm) springform pan with cooking spray.
- 2 In a medium bowl, whisk together the flour, cocoa powder, sugar, baking soda, baking powder, instant coffee, and salt.
- 3 In another medium bowl, whisk together the almond milk, vinegar, vanilla, and oil. Stir the wet ingredients into the dry. Transfer the batter into the prepared pan and smooth into an even layer with the back of a spoon.
- 4 Cover the pan with foil and place on the trivet. Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Cake (High)—if your pot has that function— or Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 30 minutes.

- 5 Once the cook time is complete, allow the pressure to release naturally for 10 minutes, then quick release any remaining pressure. Carefully remove the lid and the cake pan. Remove the foil and let the cake cool completely on a cooling rack.
- 6 Meanwhile, make the ganache. Place the chocolate in a small glass bowl. Heat the coconut milk in a small saucepan, or in the Instant Pot on Sauté (Medium), until it just begins to simmer. Carefully pour the coconut milk over the chocolate and stir until all the chocolate has melted and the mixture is smooth.
- 7 Pour the ganache over the top of the cooled cake, letting it drip down the sides. Garnish by arranging the berries, hazelnuts, and mint over the ganache. (I like to do this in a decorative crescent moon shape!)
- 8 Serve the cake at room temperature with more of the ganache, raspberries, and hazelnuts on the side, if desired.

CHOCOLATE FONDUE

Rich chocolate fondue requires just a few ingredients and a few minutes for the most fun dessert around.

---

MAKES: ABOUT 1½ CUPS

COOK: 5 MINUTES

TOTAL: 10 MINUTES

SETTINGS: SLOW COOK (MEDIUM), WARM (LOW)

RELEASE: NONE

---

9oz (255g) dairy-free chocolate chips or chunks

1 cup canned full-fat coconut milk, stirred, plus more as needed

1 tsp pure vanilla extract

Pinch of sea salt

FOR SERVING:

1pt (551ml) strawberries

½pt (276ml) raspberries

2 bananas, sliced

1 In the inner pot, stir together all ingredients. Select Slow Cook (Medium), and cover with a glass lid, or other lid that fits the pot. Stir occasionally until the chocolate has just melted, about 5 minutes. Select Cancel so that the chocolate doesn't burn. Add additional coconut milk to thin to the desired consistency.

2 Select Warm (Low). Serve the fondue right from the Instant Pot to keep warm, or transfer to a small serving bowl. Serve with fruit and skewers for dipping.

GIANT CHOCOLATE CHUNK COOKIE

Made all in one bowl, these soft and rich almond flour cookies feature big, melty chunks of chocolate. This is the ultimate gluten-free and vegan treat.

---

SERVES: 8

PREP: 5 MINUTES

PRESSURE: 6 MINUTES

TOTAL: 40 MINUTES

SETTINGS: PRESSURE COOK (HIGH)

RELEASE: NATURAL, QUICK

---

2 cups super-fine blanched almond flour

3 tbsp arrowroot starch

1 tsp baking soda

1/4 tsp sea salt

4 tbsp melted coconut oil

2 tbsp pure maple syrup

1 tsp pure vanilla extract

1/3 cup chopped dairy-free dark chocolate

1 cup water

- 1 In a medium bowl, whisk together the almond flour, arrowroot, baking soda, and salt.
- 2 Make a well in the middle of the dry ingredients. Pour the coconut oil, maple syrup, and vanilla into the well, and whisk to combine the wet ingredients. Then whisk to combine with the dry ingredients. Stir in the dark chocolate. The mixture may be a little crumbly but should hold together when pressed.
- 3 Cut out a piece of parchment paper to fit the bottom of a 7-inch (17.5cm) springform pan. Press the dough firmly on top of the parchment. (Using the back of a measuring cup to press down can help create an even layer.) Cover the pan with foil.
- 4 Fit the inner pot with the trivet or steam rack, and add 1 cup water. Place the foil-covered springform pan onto the trivet. Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 6 minutes.
- 5 Once the cook time is complete, allow the pressure to release naturally for 6 minutes, then quick release any remaining pressure. Preheat the oven broiler.
- 6 Carefully remove the lid and take the pan out of the inner pot. Remove the sides of the springform pan.
- 7 Transfer the cookie (still resting on the bottom of the springform pan) under the broiler for 1 minute, or just until golden on top. Let the cookie cool for 10 minutes, then cut into 8 wedges and serve.

CRUMBLY OAT STUFFED PEACHES

This beautiful summer dessert features juicy warm peaches, a crumbly oat and pecan topping, and vanilla ice cream.

SERVES: 4

PREP: 5 MINUTES

PRESSURE: 2 MINUTES

TOTAL: 12 MINUTES

SETTINGS: PRESSURE COOK (LOW)

RELEASE: QUICK

---

2 medium-sized, just-ripe, firm peaches (white or yellow)

1/4 cup almond flour

1/8 cup old-fashioned rolled oats (certified gluten-free, if needed)

1/8 cup chopped pecans

1/8 cup coconut sugar

Pinch of sea salt

1 tbsp vegan butter (such as Miyoko's or Earth Balance), melted

1 tbsp pure maple syrup

$\frac{2}{3}$  cup water

1pt (470ml) vegan vanilla ice cream (optional), for serving

Fresh mint (optional), for garnish

Ground cinnamon (optional), for garnish

- 1 Cut the peaches in half. Carefully remove the pits. If they don't easily come out, use a melon baller, taking care not to remove much of the peach flesh.
- 2 In a small bowl, stir together the almond flour, oats, pecans, coconut sugar, and salt. Pour in the melted butter and syrup, and stir to combine into a crumbly topping. Top the cut sides of the peaches evenly with the topping mixture.
- 3 Fit the inner pot with the trivet or steam rack, and add  $\frac{2}{3}$  cup water. Cover the trivet with a small piece of parchment paper. Place the peaches cut-side up on the parchment.
- 4 Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (Low), and set the cook time for 2 minutes.
- 5 Once the cook time is complete, immediately quick release the pressure and carefully remove the lid. Check that the peaches are tender. If not, pressure cook for 1 minute more.
- 6 To crisp the topping, place the peaches onto a baking sheet and place under the broiler for 2 minutes, or until golden. (This step is optional but encouraged.)
- 7 Serve the stuffed peaches warm, topped with a scoop of ice cream, if desired, and garnished with fresh mint leaves and cinnamon, if using.

tip The trick to perfectly cooked Instant Pot stuffed peaches is to use peaches that are barely ripe and to leave as much flesh as possible around the pit. If not, your peaches may fall apart.

PREP: 10 MINUTES

PRESSURE: 5 MINUTES

TOTAL: 1 HOUR 15 MINUTES

SETTINGS: PRESSURE COOK (HIGH),
SAUTÉ (HIGH)

RELEASE: NATURAL

---

2 cups water

4 cups natural apple juice

1/2 lemon

1 tbsp freshly grated ginger

5 cardamom pods

2 cinnamon sticks

1 vanilla bean, or 1 tbsp vanilla bean paste

4 ripe d'Anjou pears, peeled

Vegan vanilla ice cream or Chocolate Cake with Dark Chocolate Ganache, for serving

- 1 To the inner pot, add 2 cups water, apple juice, juice from the lemon, ginger, cardamom, and cinnamon. Add the lemon half. Cut the vanilla bean in half lengthwise and scrape the seeds into the pot. Add the pears. If they are not covered with liquid, add more water or apple juice.
- 2 Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 5 minutes.
- 3 Once the cook time is complete, allow the pressure to release naturally.
- 4 Use a slotted spoon to remove the pears. To reduce and concentrate the flavors in the liquid, select Sauté (High), and simmer for 20 minutes, if desired.
- 5 Serve the pears in bowls with ice cream or chocolate cake and pour more of the cooking liquid over.

SALTED DATE CARAMEL SAUCE

Instant Pot-softened dates transform into a creamy sauce that tastes remarkably like caramel, but without any added sugar.

MAKES: ABOUT 1 CUP

PRESSURE: 1 MINUTE

TOTAL: 12 MINUTES

SETTINGS: PRESSURE COOK (HIGH)

RELEASE: QUICK

---

1 cup Medjool dates (about 10)

1 cup water

1 cup full-fat coconut milk

1 tsp pure vanilla extract

1/4 tsp sea salt

OPTIONS FOR SERVING:

Granny Smith apple slices and chopped walnuts

Strawberries

Pretzels

Vegan vanilla ice cream

- 1 Add the dates and 1 cup water to the inner pot. Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 1 minute.
- 2 Once the cook time is complete, immediately quick release the pressure. Carefully remove the lid. Use a slotted spoon to remove the dates and place on a cutting board. Carefully remove and discard the pits. (A knife and fork can make this easier when the dates are hot.)
- 3 Transfer the pitted dates to a blender or food processor. Add  $\frac{1}{2}$  cup coconut milk, vanilla, and salt. Blend, adding more coconut milk or water, as needed, to thin into a thick but pourable consistency. Continue blending until very smooth, scraping down the sides as needed—this will take several minutes.
- 4 Transfer the caramel to a small bowl or jar and serve immediately with the desired serving options, or store in an airtight container in the refrigerator for up to 5 days.

CHOCOLATE DESSERT HUMMUS

Dark chocolate hummus is sure to satisfy any chocolate craving, while providing a plant-based protein and fiber boost. It's the perfect dessert dip for fruit and cinnamon pita chips.

MAKES: ABOUT 2 CUPS (16 SERVINGS)

PREP: 5 MINUTES

TOTAL: 1 HOUR 10 MINUTES

SETTINGS: PRESSURE COOK (HIGH)

RELEASE: NATURAL

- 1/2 cup dried chickpeas, rinsed
  - 2 cups water
  - 1/3 cup unsweetened cocoa powder
  - 1/4 cup cashew or almond butter
  - 1/2 tsp pure vanilla extract

1/8 tsp sea salt
3 tbsp pure maple syrup
1 tbsp raw turbinado sugar
1/4 cup canned coconut milk
Fresh mint, for garnish

OPTIONS FOR SERVING:

Strawberries

Sliced apples

Pretzels

Cinnamon pita chips

- 1 To cook the chickpeas, add the chickpeas and 2 cups water to the inner pot. Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 40 minutes.
- 2 Once the cook time is complete, allow the pressure to release naturally. Carefully remove the lid. Drain and rinse the chickpeas, and transfer to the bowl of a food processor. Add the cocoa powder, cashew butter, vanilla, salt, maple syrup, sugar, and coconut milk.
- 3 Process until very smooth and creamy, occasionally stopping to scrape down the sides with a rubber spatula. It may take several minutes to achieve very smooth hummus. Add more coconut milk if needed to thin.
- 4 Transfer the hummus to a lidded food storage container or serving bowl. Serve with any combination of strawberries, apples, pretzels, and pita chips. Store in the refrigerator for up to 5 days.

HOMEMADE VEGETABLE BROTH

MAKES: ABOUT 10 CUPS, OR 2½ QT
(2.5L)

PREP: 5 MINUTES
PRESSURE: 30 MINUTES
TOTAL: 50 MINUTES

SETTINGS: SAUTÉ (MEDIUM), SOUP (HIGH)

---

- 1 tsp extra virgin olive oil (optional)
- 1 white onion, roughly chopped
- 1 whole head garlic (skin on), halved crosswise
- 2 carrots, roughly chopped
- 3 stalks celery, roughly chopped
- 2 tsp sea salt (optional)
- Pinch of freshly ground black pepper
- A few sprigs of fresh rosemary, parsley, or thyme

2 bay leaves

1/3 cup dried mushrooms, rinsed (or 2 dried shitakes) (see tip)

Water, to fill (about 3qt; 3l)

- 1 Select Sauté (Medium), and heat the oil, if using, in the inner pot until hot. (Otherwise, you can dry sauté in the hot pot or add a bit of water in the bottom of the pot.) Add the onion, garlic, carrots, and celery. Sauté until the onion is softened and golden, 3 to 5 minutes. Add the salt (if using), herbs, and mushrooms. Add the water until it reaches about 1 inch (2.5cm) under the max-fill line. Select Cancel.
- 2 Lock the lid and ensure the steam release valve is set to the sealing position. Select Soup (High) or Pressure Cook (High), and set the cook time for 30 minutes.
- 3 Once the cook time is complete, allow the pressure to release naturally for 10 minutes, then quick release any remaining pressure. Carefully remove the lid. Use a slotted spoon to remove the vegetables. Carefully pour the broth through a fine-mesh sieve into glass jars or another storage container. Season to taste with salt and pepper. Cool completely and store in the refrigerator for up to 3 days or in the freezer for several weeks.

tip Mushrooms add richness and umami to an otherwise very light and fresh broth. Dried mushrooms, like used in the Mushroom Polenta Rounds are best, but you can also use about 5 fresh cremini mushrooms sautéed with the other vegetables. A splash of soy sauce or a piece of kombu seaweed are other ways to add umami.

tip When using this seasoning blend, keep in mind it is the herbs only and doesn't contain salt or pepper. Red pepper flakes, garlic (fresh or powdered), and salt are nice additions when using this to make your own Italian recipes.

ALMOND RICOTTA

This almond-based “ricotta cheese” tastes even better than the real thing! It’s easy to make and can be used in your favorite Italian recipes or simply spread on crackers. The truffle salt is what gives this recipe its irresistible flavor—find it in Italian grocery stores or online.

MAKES: ABOUT 2 CUPS

PREP: 1 MINUTE, PLUS OVERNIGHT FOR SOAKING

PRESSURE: NONE

TOTAL: 6 MINUTES

SETTINGS: NONE

RELEASE: NONE

---

2 cups raw, slivered almonds, soaked overnight (Trader Joe’s recommended)

1/2 cup water

2 tbsp extra virgin olive oil

1/2 tsp truffle salt

- 1 Drain and rinse the soaked almonds. Transfer to a blender or food processor and add  $\frac{1}{2}$  cup water, olive oil, and the truffle salt.
- 2 Blend, slowly adding up to  $\frac{1}{2}$  cup more water as needed until the mixture resembles ricotta cheese in texture. This may take more blending than you first expect, at least 5 minutes. Continue scraping down the sides of the bowl with a rubber spatula until it's completely smooth and creamy without any bits of crunchy nuts.
- 3 Taste and add more salt and oil if desired. Transfer to an airtight container and keep in the refrigerator for up to 1 week or use immediately in your favorite recipes, such as Vegetable Lasagna.

HOMEMADE BBQ SAUCE

Making your own barbecue sauce is easier than you think, and it cuts out a lot of the processed ingredients you'll find in store-bought varieties. This recipe has a balanced blend of flavors, and you have total control over how sweet and spicy you'd like to make it.

MAKES: ABOUT 1 CUP

COOK: 10 MINUTES

TOTAL: 12 MINUTES

SETTINGS: NONE

RELEASE: NONE

---

1 cup tomato sauce

1/3 cup apple cider vinegar

1 tbsp pure maple syrup

2 tbsp vegan Worcestershire sauce (gluten-free, if needed)
(see tip)

1 tsp ground cumin

1 tsp garlic powder

1/4 tsp smoked paprika

1/8 tsp cayenne pepper

1/2 tsp sea salt

1 cup raw cashews, soaked overnight or in hot water for at least 1 hour

1/2 cup water

1/2 tsp sea salt

1 In a small saucepan, whisk all ingredients together. Simmer over low heat until thickened and reduced, about 10 minutes. Store in an airtight container in the refrigerator for up to 1 week.

SIMPLE CASHEW CREAM

Once hydrated in water and blended, cashews transform into a decadent, silky smooth cream. It's perfect for adding richness to soups, drizzling over veggies, using as the base of a creamy salad dressing, and more. This is what makes the Creamy Broccoli Soup creamy!

MAKES: 1 CUP

PREP: 1 HOUR OR OVERNIGHT TO SOAK

PRESSURE: NONE

TOTAL: 5 MINUTES

SETTINGS: NONE

RELEASE: NONE

---

1 cup raw cashews, soaked overnight or in hot water for at least 1 hour

1/2 cup water

1/2 tsp sea salt

- 1 Drain the soaked cashews, then rinse and drain again. Place in the blender with 1/2 cup water and salt.

2 Blend until very smooth and creamy. Use immediately, or store in an airtight container in the refrigerator for up to 4 days.

tip To avoid a nutty flavor, it's important to use raw cashews.

ALMOND MILK

Creamy homemade nut milks are easy to make, taste better, and are more economical than store-bought. Use this plain almond milk recipe in breakfast bowls, over Blueberry Baked Oatmeal, and more.

MAKES: ABOUT 3 CUPS

PREP: 8 HOURS TO SOAK

PRESSURE: NONE

TOTAL: 5 MINUTES

SETTINGS: NONE

RELEASE: NONE

---

1 cup raw almonds

2–3 cups filtered water

- 1 Place the almonds in a bowl or glass jar and cover with water. Cover the bowl and let soak overnight at room temperature.
- 2 Drain and rinse the soaked almonds and transfer to a high-speed blender. Add 2 to 3 cups filtered water and blend until smooth.

3 Pour the almond milk through a piece of cheesecloth into a large glass jar to strain the solids. Store tightly sealed in the refrigerator for up to 5 days.

tip Making naturally sweetened vanilla almond milk is easy, too! Simply add a few pitted Medjool dates and 1/2 teaspoon pure vanilla extract before blending the almonds and water.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

I would like to thank the DK Publishing team for reaching out to me to work on this cookbook. It's a privilege to get to help others eat well, and I'm so grateful for the opportunity. I'd especially like to thank my editor, Alexandra Elliott, for making the process smooth, organized, and fun. Thanks to Dana Angelo White for testing every single recipe in this book, giving helpful feedback, and compiling nutritional information.

To my literary agent, Coleen O'Shea, for always being there to help guide me through the publishing world.

To my mom for taking my recipe-testing leftovers, fully embracing plant-based eating, and supporting my endeavors always. And to my dad who helped shaped the foodie I am today.

To my husband, Phil, whose support has allowed me to build my career from home with our girls over the past 10 years, and for his enthusiasm for plant-based foods.

To my kids, for their encouragement and sense of humor when cooking experiments don't go quite as planned. We will forever laugh about eating the same lentil dish five nights in a row until I got the recipe just right.
